SULZER GUILTY ON THREE COUNTS; WILL BE OUSTED, BUT IS NOT DISQUALIFIED

State Historical and Natural History Society

Vote on Three Charges Barely Sufficient to Convict; Glynn Will Be Sworn in As Chief Executive Today

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16. Gov. William Sulzer was found guilty today by the high court of impeachment on three of the articles preferred against him. They were 1, 2 and 4. He was declared innocent of the charges contained in Article 3.

He will be removed from office tomorrow, but not disqualified from holding office in this state in the future unless there is a substantial change in the informal vote reported to have been taken by the court on these questions in secret session today.

For the same reason it was expected that he would be found not guilty on the other four articles still remaining to be voted upon when the court adjourned tonight.

Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn, who has been acting governor since the impeachment of Sulzer, will become chief executive of the state. He is an Albany newspaper owner. Robert F. Wagner, a New York attorney, will become lieutenant governor. He is the majority leader in the senate.

Vote Barely Sufficient.

The vote on articles 1 and 2 was 38 to 18, a bare two-third majority. The fourth article charged that the governor violated the election law in failing to file a statement of campaign contributions and in making false entries in his books to conceal the transactions. This article was held not to be proved by a majority of the court.

The vote on articles 1 and 2 was 40 to 14, the same as their votes on the impeachment "in the lump" to which this article was not attached by the court.

Was and But Not Disqualified.

The secret informal vote to remove the governor was said to be 40 to 14, the same as on article 4, and the vote not to disqualify him was said to be unanimous.

Article 6, which charges that the governor committed larceny in speculating with his campaign contributions, was said not to have been sustained in the secret session, by a vote of 30, declaring the governor not guilty, to seven against him.

Article 5, which charges that he prevented a particular witness, Frederick L. Colwell, from attending the sessions of the Frawley committee; article 7, that he threatened to use his office and influence to affect the vote of political action of certain assemblymen, and article 8, that he corruptly used his influence to affect the prices of securities on the stock exchange, were reported also to have been decided in favor of the governor in the secret session by a practically unanimous vote.

Judge Cullen Favors Sulzer.

Presiding Judge Edgar M. Cullen voted "not guilty" on every article and rendered a long opinion in explaining his votes.

He held that the offenses charged in articles 1 and 2 were not impeachable and that the governor neither falsified his statement under the provisions of the election law nor committed "legal perjury."

"The rule here contended for," he said, "amounts in reality to an ex post facto disqualification from office for an offense which had no such penalty when committed, without affording an opportunity to show either repentance or atonement. Men have committed serious crimes, even felon-

MUZZLE COMES OFF TODAY, SAYS SULZER

Will Not Give Up Fight if He Has to Carry Case to the Supreme Court

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—"The muzzle is off, my friends. I would like to be unmuzzled myself, but Judge Herrick won't remove it until tomorrow."

This was the only statement which came from Governor Sulzer tonight. Saw it Beth Thomas, counsel of Sulzer, "[illegible]" Sulzer "[illegible]" to remove him after he said other members of the "cabinet" had taken dinner with the governor.

According to Thomas, the governor is in the best of spirits. While the newsboys shouted their extras around the executive mansion tonight, the governor chatted with his dinner guests and calmly outlined his plan of future action.

Thomas said that when the court of impeachment voted today to convict the governor for acts committed before he assumed office, they violated Section XIII of the federal criminal procedure and thus the case will be reviewable by the United States supreme court and that the case might be taken to the highest court in the land by means of a writ of prohibition.

Governor Will Not Give Up.

"The governor is a fighter," said one of the governor's callers. "Should he be thrown out of office, he will not give up. He takes the view that he can do more for the people out of office than he can in it under present conditions. As a private citizen he will not be restricted in many ways as he is now."

Judge Herrick and the governor had a long conference tonight. The governor again urged that he be permitted to issue his 2,500-word statement, but again Herrick refused to agree to such action.

While the court was voting, Governor Sulzer was taking an automobile ride.

WILSON ASKS WHY BILL IS DELAYED

Takes Three Democratic Senators to Task for Their Attitude

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson took a hand in the situation in the senate today and currency legislation was held up while he inquired of Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman, the only three Democratic senators who act as his advisers, the matter of delay in the passage of the bill.

Later, the president intimated his confidence that the measure would be passed by the senate before the December recession.

Senator O'Gorman declared that if the bill was so framed that some Republicans could support it, there would be less debate and the measure could be passed at the present session.

Senator Hitchcock said he thought a report from the present committee could be obtained the first week in November.

Reed Denies Report.

Senator Reed issued a statement declaring the pending bill could be improved by amendment and that "the attempt to picture me as fighting the president was as false as it was ridiculous."

"The hearings now are nearly ended," he added, "and I think the minds of the members are clearly drifting together."

The president is reported to have told the senators that as long as the fundamentals of the house bill are retained, among them provision for the elasticity of the currency, safeguards against concentration of reserves, and the establishment of government control over a regional reserve system, he would not object to other material changes in the bill.

According to Senator Hitchcock, the president does not desire the currency bill to be made a partisan measure and would welcome Republican support. The Nebraskan senator expressed the opinion also that the Republicans on the senate committee would not delay the measure, but would sincerely work toward framing a good bill.

Good Feeling Prevails.

An air of general good feeling surrounded the situation tonight. A great many Democratic senators have informed the president that they will not tolerate delay and will call for a party caucus if dilatory tactics develop.

While the members of the committee were holding their "get together" conferences with the president, the hearing of witnesses continued.

A committee of the United States chamber of commerce brought the result of a referendum vote taken among the members of the chamber. This report recommended several amendments, including one to cut down the number of reserve banks from 12 to three, to be located in the present central reserve cities, New York, Chicago and St. Louis, and another giving the bankers representation on the federal reserve board. The report opposed the making of the proposed new notes government obligations and urged that they be made payable in gold only.

AROUSE RURAL CHURCHES, IS GREAT PROBLEM TODAY

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 16.—Discussion of the rural church problem, especially the matter of arousing the interest of dwellers in country communities in the work of wayside chapels, was one of the principal topics brought before the second session here today of the Interior Synod of the Reformed Church of the United States.

BELIEVES PUEBLO WILL VOTE FOR SINGLE TAX

Chairman Sundergent Will Carry at November Election, G. L. Knapp Tells Lincoln Club's Tax Advocates

Pueblo will vote far ahead for the single tax amendment to the city charter at the November election, according to Mayor Harry Davis by George J. Kneisley, J. S. McCleary at a meeting of the Lincoln club last night. The single tax was given an [illegible] last night. They seem to have no [illegible] in carrying the campaign in Pueblo, and believe they will win out in the city election.

The [illegible] it was given unofficially that [illegible] Commissioner Gallagher's tax [illegible] Pueblo. The meeting was well attended. Knapp and McCleary both gave strong talks in support of the single tax theory. Mr. Knapp said, in part:

"The single tax is, of course, a tax on land only. In order to get at the amount of the tax in Pueblo, were this method of taxation in vogue, I copied the whole of the assessor's books and separated the land values from building and improvement values. The assessor's books showed that the present system is a great school for perjury. Many automobile owners had sworn the value of their cars to be but $200. The total assessed value of all the gold and silver coin, silverware and jewelry in the city was but $7,500.

"Business men are coming over to our side and many now admit that the adoption of the amendment will be a big boost for Pueblo."

The talk by J. S. McCleary concluded the meeting. He also maintained that the business men of Pueblo think that the single tax means prosperity and a greater Pueblo. To prove that the single tax is popular he cited an instance in Spokane, Wash., where a corporation which employed more than 400 men moved to Edmonton, Canada, where the single tax was in effect. In addition, nearly 15,000 former citizens of Spokane have moved to various points in western Canada because they realize that the single tax means reduced expense to industry and a lower cost of living for home owners.

In 1907 there were 15 deaths from motor car accidents; last year there were 92. In other large cities the increases for this period were:

New York, 310 per cent; Philadelphia, 390; Boston, 277; Cleveland, 340; San Francisco, 93; Los Angeles, 280; Seattle, 180; Denver, 57, and Memphis, 400.

Women Spend Too Much Time Seeking Beauty, Declares Mrs. Townsend

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—"Spend less time in seeking to beautify the face and figure and more time on mental improvement and in helping other women."

This was the admonition given American women by Mrs. O. N. Townsend of Zanesville, O., in an address at today's session of the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist Episcopal church. Mrs. Townsend spoke on "Increased Efficiency."

"Our American women," she declared, "devote their lives to beauty, culture, diet and clothes and usually fail in the effort at mental improvement."

VIOLENCE FEATURES ITALIAN CAMPAIGN

Garibaldians Repudiate Son of Noted Patriot for Political Activities

ROME, Oct. 16.—The campaign in the general elections, which will be held October 26, is waxing warmer, and in some cases political activity has taken the form of violence. The government, however, has issued orders for the prompt suppression of all disturbances.

A [illegible] Ricciotti Garibaldi, the only surviving son of the patriot, because he has given his support to the candidacy of Marquis Medici, a nephew of one of the Garibaldian generals, who also is supported by the Clericals.

Ricciotti Garibaldi, crippled by old wounds, arrived here today and drove through a hostile gathering. He was attacked by the demonstrators, one of whom struck him with a stick. His assailant was immediately arrested and the police restored order.

PALERMO, Sicily, Oct. 16.—Signor Palmerostro, a well-known lawyer of Palermo, shot and killed today a rich merchant named Signor Saladino. Palmerostro accused the merchant of having stolen documents connected with the candidacy of Nunzio Nasi, the former minister of public instruction, who served a term of imprisonment for embezzlement and who has been elected several times to the chamber of deputies, only to have his election annulled.

WALSENBURG FACES SERIOUS STRIKE WAR FOR A SHORT TIME

WALSENBURG, Colo., Oct. 16.—With Juan Garcido in the county jail to protect him from the fury of a mob of angry miners, and the sheriff's deputies sitting with loaded guns, quietly awaiting an attack, for three hours today this city was threatened with a civil war.

The trouble started at 11 o'clock this morning when picketing miners at the Rio Grande depot reported that 12 strike breakers had come on the water train, and they were immediately rushed to the Walsen mine, property of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company, at the west end of the town. Dozens of strikers immediately hastened to the depot. Three of them intercepted Garcido, who had the appearance of a foreigner.

Garcido, when questioned by the miners, told them it was none of their business what he was doing in town, and made a break for the court house. Before the three men who stopped him could summon the other strikers, Garcido had reached the court house and was under the sheriff's protection.

The court house was immediately [illegible] by striking miners, who [illegible] their purposes against the [illegible]. The crowd filed into the court house and until 2 o'clock this afternoon when they gradually began to disperse. Little groups are [illegible] every corner in the town tonight in the hope of intercepting Garcido.

STERLING, ILL., FEELS SLIGHT QUAKE SHOCK

STERLING, Ill., Oct. 16.—What was thought tonight by residents of this city to be a slight earthquake shock was felt here at 8:15 o'clock tonight. The shock lasted about 10 seconds.

PRES. WILSON WILL DEAL NO MORE WITH HUERTA; MAY SUPPORT OTHER SIDE

Pressure Being Brought to Bear Upon U. S. to Secure Recognition of Constitutionalists; Negotiations Halt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson indicated today to those with whom he discussed the Mexican situation that he was irrevocably determined to deal no longer with the Huerta regime, but that further steps toward bringing peace to Mexico were being considered. No move is expected, however, until after October 26, the date set for the Mexican elections.

Just what the Washington government will do is a matter of speculation among the high officials, but the trend of events, they say, is unmistakably toward conducting negotiations in some form or another with the constitutionalists.

The policy of the United States has been to make a complete record of having attempted to handle the problem by peaceful means. Up to the present, parleys have been carried on with the Huerta authorities who have rejected the good offices of the United States. Strong pressure now is being brought to bear upon the president and Secretary Bryan to give the constitutionalists an opportunity to compose the situation through the support of this country.

Friendly to Constitutionalists.

Reports that the president was preparing to recognize the belligerency of the constitutionalists are based chiefly upon the friendly disposition toward them that has been among administration officials since Huerta's proclamation of dictatorship. The suggestion was carried to President Wilson by those upon whom he relies, and he and Secretary Bryan have been guided to some extent in the past, and while the attitude is one of waiting until October 26 arrives, it appeared today that some move indicating support for the constitutionalists was not at all improbable.

Such action might not be formal recognition, which would present a curious tangle in technicalities of international law, but it is pointed out by those who are urging informal dealings with the constitutionalists that in reality Governor Carranza is the legally elected chief executive of the state of Coahuila and that he and Governor Maytorena of Sonora [illegible] their [illegible] of Huerta as a [illegible] of disorder [illegible] the [illegible] of the [illegible] by [illegible] throughout the [illegible].

[illegible] to [illegible] Mexico City [illegible] of [illegible] that it would interfere with domestic [illegible] of currency and other legislative reforms.

Those who know President Wilson's attitude best, say he realizes the value of a show of force in the situation but is unwilling to give his consent to any demonstration except with the intention of backing it up with actual use of force if events call for it. Means for dealing with the tangle through peaceful measures, however, have by no means been exhausted and the likelihood is that before any military or naval demonstrations are considered seriously support may be thrown toward the constitutionalists with the view of sweeping the Huerta regime from power.

The Washington government would welcome the elimination of Huerta and if this can be accomplished by lifting the embargo on arms, or giving the constitutionalists the moral support of this country, many officials favor such a policy.

PRISON CONDITIONS TO BE LAID BARE

Movement Is Launched for Purpose of Bringing About Reforms

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 16.—Upon the motion of Willis H. Moyer, superintendent of the federal penitentiary of Atlanta, Ga., the American Prison association, at its closing session here tonight, voted to secure and publish complete and authentic information of actual conditions existing in prisons of the United States. The government will be asked to secure the data, but if it does not, the association will appoint a committee to do the work.

The motion, coming from Mr. Moyer, who yesterday was criticised for his management of the federal penitentiary by two men who had been prisoners, was received enthusiastically.

The association also adopted a resolution asking that the government establish a national prison commission to supervise the federal prisons and to lend aid in the management of state institutions. The president of the association was authorized to appoint a committee of five to confer with President Wilson and the attorney general upon the proposition.

Another resolution adopted pledges the organization to select or establish an official publication for the American Prison association. Final adjournment was taken late tonight.

MISS WILLFONG PLANS SEARCH TO FIND PARENTS OF WEALTHY MAN OF MYSTERY

Heartbroken at F. M. Willimson's Death She Wants Mother Know of Last Hours

Grief stricken over the sudden death of Frank Marion Willimson, the wealthy young man of mystery, who died in a hospital Monday, after an illness of only two days, Miss Mary Willfong of Houston, Tex., declared last night that she will exhaust every resource to find the young man's mother and tell her of his death.

Willimson met Miss Willfong in the south several months ago, and when she came to Colorado Springs, the latter part of September, he followed her, and their wedding, it is understood, was set for an early date. According to the young woman, who is well educated and cultured, Willimson's estrangement from his people was an unsolved in his life of which she knew little. Among his effects was a notebook in which was carefully printed: "In case of death, notify no one." This same request was made to hospital physicians just before the young man died.

Leaves Following Quarrel.

Willimson had been in business in Chicago with his father, but one day there was a quarrel, and the young man came west. He was careful to have nothing in his possession that could identify him or give any information that might lead to learning the identity of his parents. He told a chance acquaintance here that he was going to open a motion picture theater and that he was looking about for a location. A few days ago he took a trip by train, was caught in a snow storm and contracted a heavy cold. Returning to Colorado Springs, he consulted a physician, and the next day, Saturday, pneumonia developed and he was rushed to a hospital.

In all the city Miss Willfong was his only friend or acquaintance, and for two days and nights she sat by his bedside, ministering to his wants, offering words of encouragement and doing everything in her power to keep the spark of life burning. Her long vigil ended Monday night, when Willimson died. He was 23 years old.

Parents Not Yet Located.

The young girl took charge of her fiance's effects and made arrangements for his funeral, after a score of telegrams to Chicago had failed to locate relatives. Messages received Wednesday, signed by the family name, were from parties who did not know the young man, according to the authorities yesterday.

Miss Willfong said last night that she will go to Chicago in person, in an effort to find her fiance's parents.

"I will never be satisfied until I have found his mother and told her of his death," she said. "I want her to know that her son did not die alone, that a friend near, and that he was buried in the potter's field."

CAPTAIN INCH OF ILL-STARRED VOLTURNO DEFENDS SHIP'S CREW

Declares Men Were Heroes; Criticism Unjust, He Says, Upon Reaching New York

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Francis Inch, the boyish-looking Briton who commanded the burned steamer Volturno, came to port tonight, bringing with him 87 survivors, passengers and crew, of his ill-starred vessel. His story of the disaster, in which 186 lives were lost, had preceded him by wireless, but on a cabin of the Kroonland, which brought him here, Inch told his tale in simply phrased and modest-spoken detail that described more vividly than the wireless could picture the panorama of the Volturno's loss and the rescue of more than 540 of those she had on board.

Of cowardice, there was none on the Volturno, either among officers or crew, Inch said. There was no rush of seamen which made it necessary for him to warn them back with his revolver. His revolver was in a drawer in his cabin, and it burned with the ship. And no one on board drew a revolver. These statements he intended should refute the stories told by the steerage passengers who arrived yesterday on the Grosser Kurfuerst.

The Volturno's master, besides defending his own officers and men, said he had no criticism to make of the tactics of any of the boats that stood by.

"The Carmania did its best, the same as the others," he said. "There is nothing but praise for everyone. I did not expect a boat could withstand those seas when the Carmania and the other first few ships came up."

The Carmania did not drop a boat, Inch declared, for it could not get near, as the Volturno drifted faster than the crew could row. Later, the Carmania sent off a life raft, but it drifted across the Volturno's bow and disappeared. More than that, the Carmania could not do, Inch said.

Eighteen cabin and two steerage passengers entered the first lifeboat that ventured to leave the Volturno. Only enough of the crew stepped in to man it, said Inch. They did not rush to it, and it was not crowded. Entangling itself in its aftertackle, it capsized. All in it were drowned, except officer Miller and a steward, who climbed into it after it had righted and were rescued.

Into the next boat, sent 36 passen-

Remarkable Cure of Dysentery.

"I was attacked with dysentery about July 15th, and used the doctor's medicine and other remedies with no relief, only getting worse all the time. I was unable to do anything and my weight dropped from 145 to 125 pounds. I suffered for about two months, when I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. I used two bottles of it and it gave me permanent relief," writes B. W. Hill of Snow Hill, N. C. For sale by all dealers. Adv.

SULZER GUILTY ON THREE COUNTS; WILL BE OUSTED, BUT IS NOT DISQUALIFIED

State Historical and Natural History Society

Vote on Articles Barely Sufficient to Convict; Glynn Will Be Sworn in As Chief Executive Today

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16. Gov. William Sulzer was found guilty today by the high court of impeachment on three of the articles preferred against him. They were 1, 2 and 4. He was declared innocent of the charges contained in Article 3.

He will be removed from office tomorrow, but not disqualified from holding office in this state in the future unless there is a substantial change in the informal vote reported to have been taken by the court on these questions in secret session today.

For the same reason it was expected that he would be found not guilty on the other four articles still remaining to be voted upon when the court adjourned tonight.

Lieutenant Governor Martin H Glynn, who has been acting governor since the impeachment of Sulzer, will become chief executive of the state. He is an Albany newspaper owner. Robert F Wagner, a New York attorney, will become lieutenant governor. He is the majority leader in the senate

Vote Barely Sufficient.

The vote on articles 1 and 2 was 43 to 18, a two-to-three majority. The fourth article charged that the governor violated the election law in that he solicited contributions from persons seeking state employment. The vote on Article 4 was 43 to 14. [illegible] voting in the affirmative were Senators Brown, Cantor, Cobb, Cuvillier, Dayton, Dillon, Dow, Foley, Frisbie, Gaus, Gerry, Grady, Green, Griffin, Hackenburg, Hamilton, Hewitt, Hill, Hinman, Hitchcock, Hoag, Hogan, Hotaling, Jackson, Jones, Knapp, Lack, Lamb, Lawson, Lent, Lewis, Lockwood, Lusk, McCarthy, McKinney, Mackenzie, Mahoney, Marvin, Mayer, Mills, Mitchell, Moore, Morehouse, Neuburger, Nicoll, Nixon, Ogden, Page, Parker, Pollock, Reed, Rhinelander, Robinson, Rockefeller, Rogers, Rose, Sanford, Schoeneck, Seeley, Slater, Stivers, Thompson, Tompkins, Wagner, Walker, Wallace, Wende, Westcott, Wheeler, Wilber, Wilsey, Wotkyns, Young, Zielinski, Zimmer, President Pro Tem Frank M Ward and President Pro Tem Jeremiah Keefe.

Vote Not Disqualified.

The secret informal vote to remove the governor was said to be 43 to 14, the same as on article 4, and the vote not to disqualify him was said to be unanimous.

Article 1, which charges that the governor committed larceny in speculating with his campaign contributions, was held not to have been sustained in the secret session by a vote of 36, declaring the governor not guilty, to stand against him.

Article 5, which charges that he prevented a particular witness, Frederick L Colwell, from attending the sessions of the Frawley committee; article 7, that he threatened to use his office and influence to affect the vote or political action of certain assemblymen, and article 8 that he corruptly used his influence to affect the prices of securities on the stock exchange, were reported also to have been decided in favor of the governor in the secret session by a practically unanimous vote.

Judge Cullen Favors Sulzer.

Presiding Judge Edgar M Cullen voted "not guilty" on every article and rendered a long opinion in explaining his votes

He held that the offenses charged in articles 1 and 2 were not impeachable and that the governor neither falsified his statement under the provisions of the election law nor committed "legal perjury."

The rule he contended for, he said, "amounts in reality to an ex post facto disqualification from office for an offense which had no such penalty when committed, without affording an opportunity to show either repentance or atonement. Men have committed serious crimes, even felon-

MUZZLE COMES OFF TODAY, SAYS SULZER

Will Not Give Up Fight if He Has to Carry Case to the Supreme Court

ALBANY, N Y, Oct. 16.—"The muzzle is off, my friends. I would like to be unmuzzled myself, but Judge Herrick won't remove it until tomorrow."

This was the only statement which Governor Sulzer made today to Samuel Bell Thomas, one of his "kitchen cabinet," following his return to the mansion after he and other members of the "cabinet" had taken dinner with the governor.

According to Thomas, the governor is in the best of spirits. While the newsboys shouted their extras around the executive mansion tonight, the governor chatted with his dinner guests and calmly outlined his plan of future action.

Thomas said that when the court of impeachment voted today to convict the governor for acts committed before he assumed office, they violated Section XIII of the federal criminal procedure and thus the case will be reviewable by the United States supreme court and that the case might be taken to the highest court in the land by means of a writ of prohibition

Governor Will Not Give Up.

"The governor is a fighter," said one of the governor's callers. "Should he be thrown out of office, he will not give up. He takes the view that he can do more for the people out of office than he can in it under present conditions. As a private citizen he will not be restricted in many ways as he is now"

Judge Herrick and the governor had a long conference tonight The governor again urged that he be permitted to issue his 2,500-word statement, but again Herrick refused to agree to such action

While the court was voting, Governor Sulzer was taking an automobile ride.

WILSON ASKS WHY BILL IS DELAYED

Takes Those Recalcitrant Democrats to Task for Their Attitude

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson took a hand in the situation in the house banking and currency committee today, when Congressmen Byrd and O'Gorman, the only area Democrats, senators [illegible] letter of [illegible] President, the confidence that the measure would be passed by the senate before the December adjournment.

Senator O'Gorman declared that if the bill was so framed that some Republicans could support it, there would be less debate and the measure could be passed at the present session.

Senator Hitchcock said he thought a report from the present committee could be obtained the first week in November

Reed Denies Report.

Senator Reed issued a statement declaring the pending bill could be improved by amendment and that "the attempt to picture me as fighting the president was as false as it was ridiculous."

"The hearings now are nearly ended," he added, "and I think the minds of the members are clearly drifting together"

The president is reported to have told the senators that as long as the fundamentals of the house bill are retained among them provision for the elasticity of the currency, safeguards against concentration of reserves, and the establishment of government control over a regional reserve system, he would not object to other material changes in the bill

According to Senator Hitchcock, the president does not desire the currency bill to be made a partisan measure and would welcome Republican support The Nebraskan senator expressed the opinion also that the Republicans on the senate committee would not delay the measure, but would sincerely work toward framing a good bill.

Good Feeling Prevails.

An air of general good feeling surrounded the situation tonight. A great many Democratic senators have informed the president that they will not tolerate delay and will call for a party caucus if dilatory tactics develop

While the members of the committee were holding their "get together" conferences with the president, the hearing of witnesses continued

A committee of the United States chamber of commerce brought the result of a referendum vote taken among the members of the chamber This report recommended several amendments including one to cut down the number of reserve banks from 12 to three to be located in the present central reserve cities New York Chicago and St Louis, and another giving the bankers representation on the federal reserve board The report opposed the making of the proposed new notes government obligations and urged that they be made payable in gold only

BELIEVES PUEBLO WILL VOTE FOR SINGLE TAX

Che[illegible] Amendment Will Carry at No[illegible], G. L. Knapp Tells [illegible] Single Tax Advocates

[illegible] favorably for the adoption of the single tax amendment to the [illegible] November 4, according to the statements made by George J. Knapp and J. S. McCleary at a meeting held in the Knapp theatre on the Avenue last night. These men have been managing the campaign in favor of the amendment and believe they will win out by a good plurality.

A [illegible] was given under the auspices of the Single Tax Club. The attendance was well attended Knapp and McCleary both gave strong talks in support of the single tax theory. Mr Knapp said, in part:

"The single tax is, of course, a tax on land only. In order to get at the amount of the tax in Pueblo, were this method of taxation in vogue, I copied the whole of the assessor's books and separated the land values from building and improvement values The assessor's books showed that the present system is a great school for perjury. Many automobile owners had sworn the value of their cars to be but $200. The total assessed value of all the gold and silver coin silverware and jewelry in the city was but $7,500

"Business men are coming over to our side and many now admit that the adoption of the amendment will be a big boost for Pueblo"

The talk by J S McCleary concluded the meeting. He also maintained that the business men of Pueblo think that the single tax means prosperity and a greater Pueblo To prove that the single tax is popular he cited an instance in Spokane, Wash, where a corporation which employed more than 400 men moved to Edmonton Canada where the single tax was in effect. In addition nearly 15,000 former citizens of Spokane have moved to various points in western Canada because they realize that the single tax means reduced expense to industry and a lower cost of living for home owners

ROME, Oct 16—The campaign in the general elections, which will be held October 26, is waxing warmer, and in some cases political activity has taken the form of violence The government, however, has issued orders for the prompt suppression of all "disturbances.

A [illegible] was held [illegible] Ricciotti Garibaldi, the only surviving son of the patriot, because he has given his support to the candidacy of Marquis Medici, a nephew of one of the Garibaldian generals, who also is supported by the Clericals.

Ricciotti Garibaldi, crippled by old wounds, arrived here today and drove through a hostile gathering He was attacked by the demonstrators, one of whom struck him with a stick His assailant was immediately arrested and the police restored order.

PALERMO Sicily Oct 16—Signor Palmeroztro, a well-known lawyer of Palermo, shot and killed today a rich merchant named Signor Saladino. Palmeroztro accused the merchant of having stolen documents connected with the candidacy of Nunzio Nasi, the former minister of public instruction, who served a term of imprisonment for embezzlement and who has been elected several times to the chamber of deputies, only to have his election annulled

WALSENBURG FACES SERIOUS STRIKE WAR FOR A SHORT TIME

WALSENBURG, Colo Oct 16—With Juan Garcino in the county jail to protect him from the fury of a mob of angry miners and the sheriff's deputies sitting with loaded guns quietly awaiting an attack for three hours today this city was threatened with a civil war

The trouble started at 11 o'clock this morning when picketing miners at the Rio Grande depot reported that 12 strike breakers had come on the water train and they were immediately rushed to the Walsen mine property of the Colorado Fuel and Iron company at the west end of the town Dozens of strikers immediately hastened to the depot Three of them intercepted Garcino who [illegible] the appointed new miners

Garcino when questioned by the miners at first said it was none of their business what he was doing in town and made a break for the [illegible] Before the men who stopped him could summon the other strikers Garcino had reached the court house and was under the sheriff's protection

Pressure Being Brought to Bear Upon U. S. to Secure Recognition of Constitutionalists; Negotiations Halt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson indicated today to those with whom he discussed the Mexican situation that he was irrevocably determined to deal no longer with the Huerta regime, but that further steps toward bringing peace to Mexico were being considered. No move is expected, however, until after October 26, the date set for the Mexican elections.

Just what the Washington government will do is a matter of speculation among the high officials, but the trend of events, they say, is unmistakably toward conducting negotiations in some form or another with the constitutionalists.

The policy of the United States has been to make a complete record of having attempted to handle the problem by peaceful means Up to the present parleys have been carried on with the Huerta authorities who have rejected the good offices of the United States Strong pressure now is being brought to bear upon the president and Secretary Bryan to give the constitutionalists an opportunity to compose the situation through the support of this country

Friendly to Constitutionalists.

Reports that the president was preparing to recognize the belligerency of the constitutionalists are based chiefly upon the friendly disposition toward them that has arisen among administration officials since Huerta's proclamation of dictatorship The suggestion was carried to President Wilson by those upon whose judgment he and Secretary Bryan have been guided to some extent in the past and while the attitude is one of waiting until October 26 arrives it appeared today that some move indicating support for the constitutionalists was not at all improbable

Such action might not be actual recognition, which would present a curious tangle in technicalities of international law, but it is pointed out by those who are urging informal dealings with the constitutionalists that in reality Governor Carranza is the legally elected chief executive of the state of Coahuila and that he and Governor Maytorena of Sonora [illegible] their armed resistance of Huerta is in a [illegible] of civil war against [illegible] by officially [illegible] Huerta

[illegible] to Mexico [illegible] drastic policy [illegible] domestic [illegible] of currency [illegible] other legislative reforms.

Those who know President Wilson's attitude best say he realizes the value of a show of force in the situation but is unwilling to give his consent to any demonstration except with the intention of backing it up with actual use of force if events call for it It was for dealing with the tangle through peaceful measures, however, have by no means been exhausted and the likelihood is that before any military or naval demonstrations are considered seriously support may be thrown toward the constitutionalists with the view of sweeping the Huerta regime from power

The Washington government would welcome the elimination of Huerta and if this can be accomplished by lifting the embargo on arms, or giving the constitutionalists the moral support of this country, many officials favor such a policy.

PRISON CONDITIONS TO BE LAID BARE

Movement Is Launched for Purpose of Bringing About Reforms

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 16.—Upon the motion of William H Moyer, superintendent of the federal penitentiary of Atlanta, Ga., the American Prison association, at its closing session here tonight, voted to secure and publish complete and authentic information of actual conditions existing in prisons of the United States The government will be asked to secure the data, but if it does not, the association will appoint a committee to do the work.

The motion, coming from Mr Moyer, who yesterday was criticised for his management of the federal penitentiary by two men who had been prisoners, was received enthusiastically.

The association also adopted a resolution asking that the government establish a national prison commission to supervise the federal prisons and to lend aid in the management of state institutions The president of the association was authorized to appoint a committee of five to confer with President Wilson and the attorney general upon the proposition

Another resolution adopted pledges the organization to select or establish an official publication for the American Prison association Final adjournment was taken late tonight

MISS WILLFONG PLANS SEARCH TO FIND PARENTS OF WEALTHY MAN OF MYSTERY

Heartbroken at F. M. Willimson's Death She Wants Mother Know of Last Hours

Grief stricken over the sudden death of Frank Marion Willimson the wealthy young man of mystery who died in a hospital Monday after an illness of only two days, Miss Mary Willfong of Houston, Tex, declared last night that she will exhaust every resource to find the young man's mother and tell her of his death

Willimson met Miss Willfong in the south several months ago and when she came to Colorado Springs the latter part of September he followed her and their wedding was understood was set for an early date According to the young woman who is well educated and refined Willimson's estrangement from his people was an incident in his life of which she knew but little Among his effects was a notebook in which was carefully printed In case of death notify no [illegible] This same request was made to hospital physicians just before the young man died

Leaves Following Quarrel.

Willimson had been in business in Chicago with his father but one day there was a quarrel and the young man came west He was careful to have nothing in his possession that could identify him or give any information that might lead to learning the identity of his parents He told a chance acquaintance here that he was going to open a motion picture theater and that he was looking about for a location A few days ago he took a trip by train, was caught in a snow storm and contracted a heavy cold Returning to Colorado Springs, he consulted a physician, and the next day Saturday pneumonia developed and he was rushed to a hospital

In all the city Miss Willfong was his only friend or acquaintance and for two days and nights she sat by his bedside, ministering to his wants offering words of encouragement and doing everything in her power to keep the spark of life burning. Her long vigil ended Monday night, when Willimson died He was 23 years old

Parents Not Yet Located.

The young girl took charge of her fiance's effects and made arrangements for his funeral, after a score of telegrams to Chicago had failed to locate relatives Messages received Wednesday signed by the family name, were from parties who did not know the young man, according to the authorities yesterday

Miss Willfong said last night that she will go to Chicago in person, in an effort to find her fiance's parents "I will never be satisfied until I have found his mother and told her of his death," she said. "I want her to know that her son did not die without a friend near, and that he was buried in the potter's field."

Declares Men Were Heroes; Criticism Unjust, He Says, Upon Reaching New York

NEW YORK Oct 16—Francis Inch, the boyish-looking Briton who commanded the burned steamer Volturno, came to port tonight bringing with him 87 survivors passengers and crew of his ill-starred vessel His story of the disaster, in which 136 lives were lost had preceded him by wireless but on a cabin of the Kronoland which brought him here Inch told his tale in simply phrased and modest-spoken detail that described more vividly than the wireless could picture the panorama of the Volturno's loss and the rescue of more than 500 of those who had on board

Of cowardice there was none on the Volturno either among officers or crew Inch said There was no rush of seamen which made it necessary for him to warn them back with his revolver His revolver was in a drawer in his cabin and it burned with the ship And no one on board drew a revolver These statements he intended should refute the stories told by the steerage passengers who arrived yesterday on the Grosser Kurfuerst

The Volturno's master besides defending his own officers and men said he had no criticism to make of the tactics of any of the boats that stood by

The Germania did its best the same as the others he said There is nothing but praise for everyone I did not expect a boat could withstand those seas when the Germania and the other first few ships came up

The Germania did not drop a boat Inch declared, for it could not get near as the Volturno drifted faster than the rescuing vessel Later the Germania sent off a life raft but it drifted across the Volturno's bow and disappeared More than that the Germania could not do Inch said

Eighteen men and two steerage passengers entered the first lifeboat that ventured to leave the Volturno Only enough of the rest followed in to man it said Inch they did not rush to it and it was not crowded Entangling itself in its aftertackle it capsized All in it were drowned except Officer Milot and a steward who climbed into it after it had righted and were rescued

Into the next boat went 3 passen

RUNAWAYS TAKEN HOME

The two small boy desperadoes, who were picked up by the police Thursday just after they had started on a career of adventure, were taken back to their homes in Ute Pass yesterday by J. R. Marling, a deputy sheriff of Cripple Creek. When the boys were arrested, they possessed a revolver, a large hunting knife, ammunition, four masks and a copy of the "Wild West Weekly." They had run away from their homes after one of them had taken $40 from his father.

SULZER GUILTY ON THREE COUNTS; WILL BE OUSTED, BUT IS NOT DISQUALIFIED

Vote on Three Charges Barely Sufficient to Convict; Glynn Will Be Sworn in As Chief Executive Today

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—Gov. William Sulzer was found guilty today by the high court of impeachment on three of the articles preferred against him. They were 1, 2 and 4. He was declared innocent of the charges contained in Article 3.

He will be removed from office tomorrow, but not disqualified from holding office in this state in the future unless there is a substantial change in the informal vote reported to have been taken by the court on these questions in secret session today.

For the same reason it was expected that he would be found not guilty on the other four articles still remaining to be voted upon when the court adjourned tonight.

Lieutenant Governor Martin H. Glynn, who has been acting governor since the impeachment of Sulzer, will become chief executive of the state. He is an Albany newspaper owner. Robert F. Wagner, a New York attorney, will become lieutenant governor. He is the majority leader in the senate.

Vote Barely Sufficient.

The vote on articles 1 and 2 was 39 to 18, a bare two-thirds majority. The former article charges that the governor falsified his statement of campaign contributions, the latter that he committed perjury in so doing.

The vote on article 3, which charges that the governor bribed witnesses to withhold testimony from the Frawley investigating committee, was unanimous in favor of the governor.

The vote on article 4 was 48 to 14, six members changing their votes on articles 1 and 2 from "not guilty" to "guilty," and from "guilty" to "not guilty." This article charges that the governor suppressed evidence by means of threats to keep witnesses from testifying before the Frawley committee. Among those who testified at the trial that the governor had asked him to commit perjury

Removed But Not Disqualified.

The secret informal vote to remove the governor was said to be 48 to 14, the same as on article 4, and the vote not to disqualify him was said to be unanimous.

Article 6 which charges that the governor committed larceny in speculating with his campaign contributions was said not to have been sustained in the secret session by a vote of 50, declaring the governor not guilty, to seven against him.

Article 5 which charges that he prevented a particular witness, Frederick L. Colwell from attending the sessions of the Frawley committee, article 7, that he threatened to use his office and influence to affect the vote or political action of certain assemblymen, and article 8 that he corruptly used his influence to affect the prices of securities on the stock exchange were reported also to have been decided in favor of the governor in the secret session by a practically unanimous vote.

Judge Cullen Favors Sulzer.

Presiding Judge Edgar M. Cullen voted not guilty on every article and rendered a long opinion in explaining his votes.

He held that the offenses charged in articles 1 and 2 were not impeachable and that the governor neither falsified his statement under the provisions of the election law nor committed legal perjury.

"The rule here contended for," he said, "amounts in reality to an ex post facto disqualification from office for an offense which had no such penalty when committed without affording an opportunity to show either repentance or atonement. Men have committed serious crimes, even felon-

MUZZLE COMES OFF TODAY, SAYS SULZER

Will Not Give Up Fight if He Has to Carry Case to the Supreme Court

ALBANY, N. Y., Oct. 16.—"The muzzle is off, my friends. I would like to be unmuzzled myself, but Judge Herrick won't remove it until tomorrow."

This was the only statement which came from Governor Sulzer tonight. Samuel Bell Thomas, member of Sulzer's "kitchen cabinet" delivered the message to newspaper men after he and other members of the "cabinet" had taken dinner with the governor.

According to Thomas the governor is in the best of spirits. While the newsboys shouted their extras around the executive mansion tonight, the governor chatted with his dinner guests and calmly outlined his plan of future action.

Thomas said that when the court of impeachment voted today to convict the governor for acts committed before he assumed office, they violated Section XIII of the federal criminal procedure and thus the case will be reviewable by the United States supreme court and that the case might be taken to the highest court in the land by means of a writ of prohibition.

Governor Will Not Give Up.

"The governor is a fighter," said one of the governor's callers. "Should he be thrown out of office he will not give up. He takes the view that he can do more for the people out of office than he can in it under present conditions. As a private citizen he will not be restricted in many ways as he is now."

Judge Herrick and the governor had a long conference tonight. The governor again urged that he be permitted to issue his 2,000 word statement but again Herrick refused to agree to such a step.

While the city was voting, Governor Sulzer was taking an automobile ride.

WILSON ASKS WHY BILL IS DELAYED

Takes Three Recalcitrant Democrats to Task for Their Attitude

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson took a hand in the situation in the senate banking and currency committee today, personally inquiring of Senators Hitchcock, Reed and O'Gorman, the only three Democratic senators whose attitude has been a matter of doubt, just what were the prospects for currency legislation at the present session of congress.

Later, the president reiterated his confidence that the measure would be passed by the senate before the December session.

Senator O'Gorman declared that if the bill was so framed that some Republicans could support it, there would be less debate and the measure could be passed at the present session.

Senator Hitchcock said he thought a report from the present committee could be obtained the first week in November.

Reed Denies Report

Senator Reed issued a statement declaring the pending bill could be improved by amendment and that the attempt to picture me as fighting the president was as false as it was ridiculous."

"The hearings now are nearly ended," he added "and I think the minds of the members are clearly drifting together."

The president is reported to have told the senators that as long as the fundamentals of the house bill are retained among them provision for the elasticity of the currency, safeguards against concentration of reserves and the establishment of government control over a regional reserve system he would not object to other material changes in the bill.

According to Senator Hitchcock the president does not desire the currency bill to be made a partisan measure and would welcome Republican support. The Nebraskan senator expressed the opinion also that the Republicans on the senate committee would not delay the measure, but would sincerely work toward framing a good bill.

Good Feeling Prevails

An air of general good feeling surrounded the situation tonight. A great many Democratic senators have informed the president that they will not tolerate delay and will call for a party caucus if dilatory tactics develop.

While the members of the committee were holding their get together conferences at the president's the hearing of witnesses continued.

BELIEVES PUEBLO WILL VOTE FOR SINGLE TAX

Charter Amendment Will Carry at November Election, G. L. Knapp Tells Local Single Tax Advocates

Pueblo will vote favorably for the adoption of the single tax amendment to the city charter November 4 according to statements made by George L. Knapp and J. S. McCleary at a meeting held Friday for single taxers given at the Alamo last night. These men have been engaging the campaign in Pueblo and believe they will win out in the leading election.

The supper last night was given under the auspices of the Colorado Single Tax association and the meeting was well attended. Knapp and McCleary both gave strong talks in support of the single tax theory. Mr. Knapp said in part:

The single tax is of course a tax on land only. In order to get at the amount of the tax in Pueblo were this method of taxation in vogue I copied the whole of the assessor's books and separated the land values from building and improvement values. The assessor's books showed that the present system is a great school for perjury. Many automobile owners had sworn the value of their cars to be but $200. The total assessed value of all the gold and silver coin, silverware and jewelry in the city was but $7,500.

Business men are coming over to our side and many now admit that the adoption of the amendment will be a big boost for Pueblo.

The talk by J. S. McCleary concluded the meeting. He also maintained that the business men of Pueblo think that the single tax means prosperity and a greater Pueblo. To prove that the single tax is popular he cited an instance in Spokane, Wash., where a corporation which employed more than 4,000 men moved to Edmonton, Canada, where the single tax was in effect. In addition nearly 1,000 former residents of Spokane have moved to various points in western Canada because they realize that the single tax means reduced taxes to industry and increased [illegible] for the workers.

VIOLENCE FEATURES ITALIAN CAMPAIGN

Garibaldians Repudiate Son of Noted Patriot for Political Activities

ROME, Oct. 16.—The campaign in the general elections, which will be held October 26, is waxing warmer and in some cases political activity has taken the form of violence. The government however, has issued orders for the prompt suppression of all disturbances.

A meeting of Garibaldians was held today to organize a protest against Ricciotti Garibaldi, the only surviving son of the patriot, because he has given his support to the candidacy of Marquis Medici, a nephew of one of the Garibaldian generals, who also is supported by the clericals.

Ricciotti Garibaldi crippled by old wounds arrived here today and drove through a hostile gathering. He was attacked by the demonstrators, one of whom struck him with a stick. His assailant was immediately arrested and the police restored order.

PALERMO, Sicily, Oct. 16.—Signor Palmerostro, a well known lawyer of Palermo, shot and killed today a rich merchant named Signor Saladino. Palmerostro accused the merchant of having stolen documents connected with the candidacy of Nunzio Nasi, the former minister of public instruction who served a term of imprisonment for embezzlement and who has been elected several times to the chamber of deputies only to have his election annulled.

PRES. WILSON WILL DEAL NO MORE WITH HUERTA; MAY SUPPORT OTHER SIDE

Pressure Being Brought to Bear Upon U. S. to Secure Recognition of Constitutionalists; Negotiations Halt

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—President Wilson indicated today to those with whom he discussed the Mexican situation that he was irrevocably determined to deal no longer with the Huerta regime, but that further steps toward bringing peace to Mexico were being considered. No move is expected, however, until after October 26, the date set for the Mexican elections.

Just what the Washington government will do is a matter of speculation among the high officials, but the trend of events, they say, is unmistakably toward conducting negotiations in some form or another with the constitutionalists.

The policy of the United States has been to make a [illegible] of [illegible] accomplishing [illegible] the problem by peaceful means. Up to the present parleys have been carried on with the Huerta authorities who have rejected the good offices of the United States. Strong pressure now is being brought to bear upon the president and Secretary Bryan to give the constitutionalists an opportunity to compose the situation through the support of this country.

Friendly to Constitutionalists.

Reports that the president was preparing to recognize the belligerency of the constitutionalists are based chiefly upon the friendly disposition [illegible]

toward them that has arisen among administration officials since Huerta's inauguration [illegible] dictatorship. The discussion was settled to President Wilson be the one upon whose judgment he and Secretary Bryan have been guided to some extent in the past, and while the attitude is one of waiting until October 26 arrives it appeared today that some move indicating support for the constitutionalists was not at all improbable.

Such action might not be formal recognition which would present a curious tangle in technicalities of international law but it is pointed out by those who are urging informal dealings with the constitutionalists that in reality Governor Carranza was legally elected chief executive of the state of Coahuila and that he and Governor Maytorena of Sonora justify their armed resistance of Huerta as a measure of defense against those who took [illegible] of the federal government machinery in the Mexican capital by arbitrarily overthrowing Madero.

Loath to Resort to Force

That President Wilson believes the Mexico City administration is incapable of restoring constitutional authority, is evident and there [illegible] the Washington government would adopt a [illegible] drastic policy immediately but for the fear that it would interfere with the domestic program of currency and other legislative reforms.

Those who know President Wilson's attitude best say he realizes the value of a show of force in the situation but is unwilling to give his consent to any demonstration except with the intention of backing it up with actual use of force if events call for it. Means for dealing with the tangle through peaceful measures however have by no means been exhausted and the likelihood is that before any military or naval demonstrations are considered seriously support may be thrown toward the constitutionalists with the view of sweeping the Huerta regime from power.

The Washington government would welcome the elimination of Huerta and if this can be accomplished by lifting the embargo on arms, or giving the constitutionalists the moral support of this country many officials favor such a policy.

PRISON CONDITIONS TO BE LAID BARE

Movement Is Launched for Purpose of Bringing About Reform

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 16.—Upon the motion of William H. Moyer, superintendent of the federal penitentiary of Atlanta, Ga., the American Prison association, at its closing session here tonight voted to secure and publish complete and authentic information of actual conditions existing in prisons of the United States. The government will be asked to secure the data, but if it does not, the association will appoint a committee to do the work.

The motion coming from Mr. Moyer who yesterday was criticised for his management of the federal penitentiary by two men who had been prisoners was received enthusiastically.

The association also adopted a resolution asking that the government establish a national prison commission to supervise the federal prisons and to lend aid in the management of state institutions. The president of the association was authorized to appoint a committee of five to confer with President Wilson and the attorney general upon the proposition.

Another resolution adopted pledges the organization to select or establish an official publication for the American Prison association. Final adjournment was taken late tonight.

A stronger guard surrounded the county jail tonight where 71 mine strikers are confined the officials fearing that an attack will be made. A meeting of officers held in their headquarters tonight gave grounds for this fear

Forty-seven Strikers Arrested.

TRINIDAD Colo Oct 16—Forty-nine striking miners charged with picketing were arrested at the McLoughlin mine of the Santa Fe Coal company shortly before noon today and marched three miles to the county jail at Trinidad

Fifteen deputies armed with rifles flanked the prisoners on either side and a machine gun mounted on an automobile brought up the rear but in spite of this several members of the crowd of 300 strikers that followed the party attempted to break through the lines and liberate the prisoners

A crowd of 75 strikers gathered at the McLoughlin mine this morning when they learned that the 20 miners employed at the mine whom they succeeded in preventing from entering the mine yesterday had returned to work

The strikers paraded back and forth in front of the mine shouting "We're waiting for the scabs to come out." The demonstration continued for two hours before the arrival of the deputies Seventy one miners are now being held at the county jail on the charge of picketing

PRES. WILSON

The tanker also has as passengers 15 British subjects, 10 Mexicans and one American.

Consul Hanna at Monterey reported to the state department today that he started a train Monday with 155 Americans bound for Tampico on their way to the United States. Railroad traffic is suspended between Monterey and Laredo, Tex. Mr. Hanna said the travelers were greatly fatigued, having spent 21 days in making their journey from Torreon to Monterey.

Travelers arriving in Monterey from Torreon Monday brought word that property there had not been damaged up to October 7 and that Americans generally were well treated, although a loan of 3,000,000 pesos had been demanded of them. They said there was no foundation for reports about the killing of Spanish subjects in Torreon.

The department was informed today of the closing by Mexican authorities of the bridge connecting Nuevo Laredo, Mex., with Laredo, Tex. Passage is permitted only to bearers of passes from General Tellez and railroad employes have been given notice that they must move to the Mexican side or seek employment elsewhere.

From Guadalajara, it was reported that the Cinco Minas mines, representing an investment of $1,500,000, had been forced to close. Two unidentified Americans are reported to have been killed at the works, which are owned by a company of which James W. Gerard, ambassador to Germany, is president.

Llorente Surrenders.

EL PASO, Tex., Oct. 16.—Enrique C. Llorente, former Mexican consul at El Paso under the Madero administration, surrendered himself to government authorities today to answer to a federal indictment charging him with violation of the neutrality law. He was immediately released on furnishing a bond of $2,000.

Llorente is alleged in the indictment to have organized an expedition of American filibusters to enter Mexico from the United States during the Orozco revolution for the purpose of tearing up the Mexican National railroad which was operated by the Orozco rebels.

England Awaits News.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The British government has adopted a waiting attitude in regard to the Mexican situation. It considers the matter thus far as an entirely internal affair of Mexico and does not contemplate any action although watching events closely.

The British foreign office has received no information from the legation in Mexico City in respect to the reported conference of the members of the diplomatic corps there and the fact that Germany is reported to have sent a warship to a Mexican port has not influenced British policy.

Paris Loans Money.

PARIS, Oct. 16.—The foreign office here today received a telegram from the French legation at Mexico City suggesting that a warship be sent to Mexico.

The government officials are considering the matter and following the usual practice of sending a warship when a French citizen requests one it is probable that one of the Iron Duke class of French battleships will be detailed to Mexico. The French foreign office had not been advised whether the diplomatic corps at Mexico City counseled the Mexican government to use caution in replying to the representations of the American government.

Huerta has drawn a draft of $5,000,000 in Paris, it is alleged according to unconfirmed reports through the chiefs of the Catholic party. The most Rev. Jose Mora, archbishop of the state of Mexico, it is understood, came to Europe recently partly on this account.

The loan was presumably on short term bills to be repaid out of the proceeds of the unissued portion of the loan arranged last spring.

Madero Minister Flees.

VERA CRUZ, Mex., Oct. 16.—Manuel Bonilla, who was minister of communications in the late President Madero's cabinet, sailed from here today on board the Hamburg-American line Kron Prinzessin Cecelia, in disguise.

Fearing arrest, he has fled from Mexico. He arrived here this morning and went aboard the liner, which was due to sail at 1 o'clock for Cuba, Spain, England and Germany.

Arrangements were made today for 200 refugees from Torreon to be taken on board the Texas City at Tampico. The American consul, William W. Canada, and Rear Admiral F. F. Fletcher supervised the arrangement. The Texas City left here today.

NOGALES, Ariz., Oct. 16.—That President Wilson, in a telegram to General Carranza, leader of the anti-Huerta movement in northern Mexico, had asked today for suggestions from the constitutionalists looking toward the establishment of peace in Mexico, was asserted tonight by T. Bonillas, a Sonora state congressman. The contents of President Wilson's message were not revealed.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Prompt denial was made tonight that President Wilson or any other official of the government had entered into communication with General Carranza, leader of the constitutionalists seeking some basis for the restoration of peace in Mexico. It was acknowledged unofficially, however, that the Wilson administration was aware that certain interested parties acting without governmental authority had been canvassing the situation with the revolutionary leader. These activities it is thought, gave rise to the theory the government had opened negotiations with the rebels.

DOUGLAS, Ariz., Oct. 16.—Constitutionalist advices from Hermosillo tonight state that the federals have concentrated at San Jose de Guaymas, while the Sonora insurgents retain Empalme. Both towns are suburbs of Guaymas, the gulf of California port which the Huerta government is defending against besieging state troops.

Recent fighting at Guaymas is reported to have been insignificant.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—(Friday)—The London morning newspapers publish interesting editorials this morning on the Mexican situation. The Daily Graphic, confessing that Great Britain has been betrayed into a wrong coup and that President Huerta's own acts have shown that the United States was right and Great Britain wrong, urges the government to take immediate steps to withdraw its moral support from the Huerta administration.

The morning Post thinks that President Wilson's resolve to avoid a policy of intervention has put to a severe test and expresses the belief that even if the other powers withdraw their recognition General Huerta still would remain defiant.

MEXICO CITY, Oct. 16.—There have been no student demonstrations today as was feared, or elsewhere so far as is known, in the capital.

Seek Church Harmony

The debate brought out the important announcement that the proposal to change the name of the church which it had been believed was dead so far as this convention is concerned would be brought up in direct form on the floor of the house of deputies before the conclusion of the present session.

It was said the question was to come up through a memorial from the diocese of California.

Dr. Manning made it clear in his address on the amendment that his proposal was made in the interest of church harmony. He explained his objection to the present name of the church—that it was too cumbersome and he did not sufficiently express the church's "splendid Catholic comprehensiveness," but he did not believe the church was yet ready for a change.

"I believe," he said, "that it would be wrong and unjust and could do nothing but harm to make such a change until a great majority of the church shall be convinced that it is desirable."

As she settled into the water 10 more jumped aboard from the Volturno's deck. A wave swept it under the Volturno's stern. "She just sat on it and rushed it out of sight," said Inch. "The boat's tilted and was the only one to escape."

Inch denied reports of rotten tackle and fire hose and of unsafe lifeboats, saying all of these articles were in good condition. He counted only three explosions, the last one wrecking the wheel and compass so that a hand gear had to be rigged up.

Inch denied stories of steerage passengers that people were swept overboard and babies were trampled on while being rescued by the Gosset Kaffuerers, first boat that came in response to Lloyd's message. Officers urged men and women to jump overboard for the lifeboat could not get near enough for them to be lowered into it. None dared to jump. Show them how, to jump, Inch told his crew. Two at a time they leaped over the rail. When passengers saw them reach the lifeboat they followed them into the sea. With boat hooks and oars some were rescued. Others went to their deaths. Some men were removed in this way.

Had Name Changed

Cuyler first [illegible] New York city about [illegible] that time his name was Cuyler Smith. A short time before he was married the Georgia legislature permitted him to change his name to Smith-Cuyler.

Cuyler and his bride and his mother-in-law went to Paris to live. About two years ago Cuyler is said to have returned to New York alone.

Shortly afterward, Mrs. Cuyler and her mother, who are natives of California and said to be wealthy, went to San Francisco and established a residence there.

Cuyler went to San Francisco last year and after a few weeks returned to Atlanta alone. About two months ago he received notice that his wife had been awarded a decree of divorce and the custody of their children.

Wife Granted Divorce.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 16.—Tolamon Cluyler Smith-Cuyler and Miss Grace Barton were married in California in 1900 and Mrs. Cuyler was granted a divorce in this city in June of this year. Failure to provide was given as the ground for the action.

Mr. Cuyler is a Georgian, a cotton planter and also owns a ranch in Imperial county, Cal. Grace Barton is a daughter of the late Willard F. Barton, well known in California. Isabella T. Barton mentioned in the suit today filed in Chicago is believed to be Grace Barton's mother.

Friends of Miss Barton, who resumed her maiden name after her divorce, could advance nothing more tonight than conjecture that the Chicago suit is an outgrowth of the loss by Mr. Cuyler of his former wife's affections.

SULZER GUILTY

ies, and subsequently attained high public positions."

All Explain Their Votes.

Practically every member of the court explained his vote on article 1, although those who voted in favor of the governor did not enter at length into a discussion of the merits of the case or of the matters of law and precedent involved, as did the others, including all the judges. The latter filed with the court lengthy opinion in support of their votes.

One of the judges, Nathan L. Miller, who was designated to the court of appeals bench by Sulzer, denounced him as "totally unfit for office."

Several of the senators also took occasion to express their opinions of Governor Sulzer. Senator Sage declared that the impeachment of Thomas Ryan was going to the governor because he "was a friend of congress and has a record of services to be rendered in his new position."

Senator Wagner, Democratic leader of the senate, declared in his opinion in which he sustained the charges in article 1 that the governor was impeachable for acts committed before he came into office.

Republican Defends Attitude.

Senator Elon R. Brown, Republican leader, read a lengthy opinion in which he gave his reasons for voting as he had done in connection with the charges he had been called upon to consider as governor.

"It has been my purpose," he said, "to preserve administrative harmony and lead the administration in the senate and at times, when both sides were in conflict, I was indeed in the unenviable position of being between the hammer and the anvil. I have endeavored to do my duty as I saw it, regardless of personal consequences, and if I have made mistakes of judgment I have done so without malice or ill will toward any man."

Senator Brown asserted that on account of the weakness of his case, the respondent did not dare to take the witness stand, and the testimony of Peck, Ryan and Morgenthau stood unchallenged and was overwhelming, he asserted.

Judge Chase Not Guilty.

Judge Chase voted not guilty. He read an opinion holding that the acts charged in Article 1 were committed before the governor took office. He said he had no doubt that the governor was morally guilty, but thought it unwise to establish a precedent contrary to law. Judge Collins voted guilty and announced that he would file an opinion. Judge Cuddeback declared that a violation by a candidate of the corrupt practices act "reached in to the office itself."

"Therefore, I vote guilty," he concluded and filed an opinion.

Judge Cullen Not Guilty.

Presiding Judge Cullen voted not guilty. He announced that he had prepared a long opinion, which treated Articles 1, 2 and 6 together, he said.

"I am constrained to find," he said, "that the respondent did take advantage of his nomination and candidacy for office to seek to personally enrich himself by diverting contributions which he received for campaign purposes. I find that the respondent knowingly filed a false campaign statement and I find he did verify this statement under oath, knowing it to be false. However, I must vote not guilty."

Speaking of Article 4, the larceny charge, Judge Cullen said:

"The use of this money for his own purposes for political wards is not an offense and I believe that he had the legal right to use the money for any purpose he saw fit. I don't think he could be held guilty of larceny."

Wagner Explains Vote.

Democratic leader Wagner of the senate voted guilty, explaining his imposes the duty upon the members of this court without regard to previous bias. That man is so petty, be he a member of this court or not, that he can stand singly in this presence and after taking a solemn oath to do justice and hearing the evidence, vote out of revenge or prejudice or haze."

Senators Wende and Duhamel, staunch supporters of the governor ever since he was impeached, spoke briefly. Senator Duhamel announced that he might file a statement of his position at some future date.

Frawley Dodges Issue.

Senator Frawley, chairman of the legislative investigating committee which brought the charges against the governor, announced that he would "attempt to pass no opinion as to the rights of the court to impeach or not."

"I find that the high court of appeals is divided upon the question of impeachment themselves," he said. "Therefore, upon the facts, I cast my vote guilty."

The judges and senators filed into the senate chamber at six minutes after 3. At that time the galleries were crowded with spectators and many thronged the corridors who were unable to gain admittance.

57 Members Present.

The roll showed that all the 57 members of the court were present except Sulzer, who was not present but was represented by his attorney.

It was 3:10 when Presiding Judge Cullen directed the clerk to open court. Judge Cullen had pronounced the court duly opened, he said:

"Gentlemen, the next proceeding is the final decision of this court on the articles presented by the assembly against the respondent."

Clerk Joseph Mochan then read article 1.

Singer Votes Guilty.

Senator Alfred Singer, the first member called, voted guilty.

"This court is not a court of the respondent, [illegible] extremely [illegible] to me. I vote guilty."

Bartlett Says Not Guilty.

Judge Bartlett, next on the list, asked [illegible] a written explanation of his vote. In a brief [illegible] however, he said: "I find no connection between the governor's election campaign statement and his acts as governor.

"I find that he is guilty of corrupt practices in office and vote no," he said.

Blauvelt Votes Guilty.

Senator Blauvelt voted guilty. I [illegible] he said. "In reaching this conclusion I do not question the integrity of the judge that [illegible] but I believe traditions should be cast aside when a great question of the public good confronts us. I find the respondent morally unfit for the office of governor and guilty of the acts charged in article 1."

Sen. Brown Votes Guilty.

Senator Elon R. Brown, Republican leader of the senate, voted guilty. He read a long opinion in which he recited the differences he had had with the governor, but declared that no [illegible] could be attributed to any [illegible] on the part of the governor. Senator Brown asserted that on account of the weakness of his case, the respondent did not dare to take the witness stand," the testimony of Peck, Ryan and Morgenthau stood unchallenged and was overwhelming, he asserted.

Judge Chase Not Guilty.

Judge Chase voted not guilty. He read an opinion holding that the acts charged in Article 1 were committed before the governor took office. He said he had no doubt that the governor was morally guilty, but thought it unwise to establish a precedent contrary to law. Judge Collins voted guilty and announced that he would file an opinion. Judge Cuddeback declared that a violation by a candidate of the corrupt practices act "reached in to the office itself."

"Therefore, I vote guilty," he concluded and filed an opinion.

Judge Cullen Not Guilty.

Presiding Judge Cullen voted not guilty. He announced that he had prepared a long opinion, which treated Articles 1, 2 and 6 together, he said.

"I am constrained to find," he said, "that the respondent did take advantage of his nomination and candidacy for office to seek to personally enrich himself by diverting contributions which he received for campaign purposes. I find that the respondent knowingly filed a false campaign statement and I find he did verify this statement under oath, knowing it to be false. However, I must vote not guilty."

Speaking of Article 4, the larceny charge, Judge Cullen said:

"The use of this money for his own purposes for political wards is not an offense and I believe that he had the legal right to use the money for any purpose he saw fit. I don't think he could be held guilty of larceny."

Wagner Explains Vote.

Democratic leader Wagner of the senate voted guilty, explaining his action by reading at length from a prepared opinion.

He declared that the history of the various constitution of the state showed "the framers intended that impeachment should lie not only for malicious and corrupt practices in office but also for corrupt acts anterior to office.

"However," he continued, "I am convinced that articles one and two cite actual corrupt official acts, for I cannot in my mind separate the acts of a defacto governor from the acts of a governor after his inauguration."

Senator Walters voted guilty and announced that he would file an opinion.

Judge Warner said that because of the alphabetical position of his name and because nearly all the views had been crystalized, he realized that his vote was of more value than his opinion. However, he gave a rather lengthy explanation of his vote. He voted guilty.

Wheeler Caste Deciding Vote.

Senator Wheeler voted not guilty and then to Senator White fell the duty of casting the vote of guilty which convicted Governor Sulzer of the first article of impeachment. Neither made any explanation of their votes.

Senator Whitney then voted not guilty.

Senator Wilson's vote of guilty completed the roll call.

Clerk McCabe then announced the result:

"Guilty, 39; not guilty, 18."

It was decided to proceed with the balloting until 7 o'clock when adjournment would be taken until tomorrow morning at 10:30 o'clock. It was decided, however, that if the court was voting when the adjournment hour arrived the vote would be completed.

At the direction of Judge Cullen, clerk McCabe then read article 2 of the impeachment.

The vote on the second article which charges perjury went more rapidly, as many members of the court voted guilty or not guilty without explaining.

How They Voted.

Votes of "guilty" were cast by Senators Angelsinger, Blauvelt, Boylan, Brown, Bussey, Carroll, Carswell, Coats, Cullen, Foley, Frawley, Godfrey, Griffin, Healy, Heffernan, Hewitt, McClelland, Malone, Murtaugh, Ormrod, Patten, Pollock, Ramsperger, Sage, Sanner, Simpson, Sullivan, Thompson, Torborg, Velte, Wagner, Walters, White and Wilson and Judges Collin, Cuddeback, Hiscock, Hogan, Miller.

Those voting "not guilty" were Judges Bartlett, Chase, Cullen and Werner and Senators Duhamel, Emerson, Hiscock, Herrick, McKnight, O'Keefe, Palmer, Peckman, Seeley, Stivers, Thomas, Wende, Wheeler and Whitney.

The vote on article three was rapid. The result showed that the governor was unanimously declared not guilty of the charges contained therein.

The roll was then called on article four.

This is the article which the court held was broad enough to cover the testimony of Jim Jon W. Peck, that the governor asked him to perjure himself if called before the Frawley committee.

Votes of guilty followed one another until Presiding Judge Cullen's name was called. He cast the first vote of not guilty.

Judge Cullen's Opinion.

"This article rests on the so-called Peck testimony," said Judge Cullen. "It is not charged in the article and I hold that this court has not the power to amend the impeached article. The name of Peck is not in the article. Suspicion is submitted for proof. A man is being tried for one offense and convicted of another."

Presiding Judge Cullen said:

"Such procedure tended to make law degenerate into oppression on the one hand and into anarchy on the other."

Senator Emerson changed from not guilty to guilty, and Senator Herrick went against the governor for the first time by casting a ballot of guilty.

Judge Hiscock's vote was changed to not guilty. Judge Miller voted not guilty. A murmur of surprise swept through the chamber as Senator Palmer voted guilty.

A negative vote was cast by Senator Patten.

Senator Thomas then read a lengthy explanation of his vote of not guilty.

"Through the coming years," the statement said in part, "the accusing finger will keep forever pointing and I think that this precedent established here will not be accepted by the canons of statutory construction and the judgment of fair-minded men."

Affirmative votes by Judge Werner, Senators White and Whitney concluded the roll. The final count was 43 to 14.

Adjournment was then taken until 10:30 o'clock tomorrow morning."

Eight Articles of Impeachment

The eight articles are in substance as follows:

Article 1—That Governor Sulzer filed with the secretary of state a false statement of his receipts and other monetary transactions involved in his gubernatorial campaign.

Article 2—That he committed perjury in his statement to the secretary of state relative to receipts and expenditures.

Article 3—That he bribed witnesses to withhold testimony from the legislative committee which investigated his campaign expenditures and receipts.

Article 4—That he suppressed evidence by means of threat to keep witnesses from testifying before the legislative investigating committee.

Article 5—That he prevented and dissuaded a particular witness, Frederick L. Colwell, from attending under subpoena, the sessions of the investigating committee.

Article 6—That he committed larceny in speculating in stocks with money and checks contributed for his campaign.

Article 7—That he threatened to use his office and influence to affect the vote or political action of certain public offices.

Article 8—That while governor he corruptly used his authority or influence to affect the current prices of securities on the New York stock exchange in some of which securities he was at the time interested.

In one of the Spanish cities a co-operative society has been formed which is to have a central market, where all sorts of foodstuffs and fuels may be procured.

SENATORS URGE SAFETY AT SEA

MORE ADEQUATE LAWS ARE NEEDED

"Liners Should Carry Oil Tanks as Well as Boats," Says Capt. Harwood

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Safety at sea for travelers and improved working conditions for sailors on merchant ships, were taken up in the senate today when debate began on the seaman's servitude bill. The Volturno disaster figured prominently in the discussion. Senators expressed the opinion that more adequate laws on loading of cargoes and requiring higher efficiency in crews would do much to prevent similar catastrophes.

Senator La Follette charged that large shipping interests had prevented adequate reform for years. He presented a substitute for the bill requiring an absolute test of efficiency for seamen on ocean liners.

Fire drills and lifeboat drills cannot be had on ocean vessels, the senator continued, under conditions approaching those which confront a ship's crew at the time of disaster at sea. The greatest safety, he said, lies in a law that will require an adequate number of seamen thoroughly trained.

The senate has agreed to vote not later than October 22. The measure passed the last congress but was pocket vetoed by President Taft.

Ships Should Carry Oil.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—"Liners should carry oil tanks as well as boats for saving life at sea," said Captain Harwood of the Narragansett, which arrived today. "The effect of the oil in subduing the terrific seas about the Volturno was marvelous. I started pumping out oil under her stern at 7:20 o'clock Friday. Eleven minutes later we were able to launch two lifeboats, which brought off 29 survivors. Altogether, I used about 50 tons of lubricating oil. I believe that if the Narragansett had been able to reach the Volturno a day earlier, not a single life would have been lost in the seas."

Given Great Ovation.

LONDON, Oct. 16.—The oil tank steamer Narragansett, which "arrived with the milk in the morning" on the scene of the Volturno disaster and by scattering tons of oil on the raging sea greatly aided the rescue work, received a great reception on her arrival in the Thames at noon today. A band on board of a tug met her down the river and played the "Conquering Hero" and a succession of national airs.

Vessel sirens screamed and cheers from the crowds on the river banks greeted the crew of the Narragansett as they reached the Anglo-American Oil company's wharf. The ship had number of survivors on board.

No Sign of Derelict Hulk.

LIVERPOOL, England, Oct. 16.—No sign of the derelict hulk Volturno was seen by the Cymric on her voyage across the Atlantic. She arrived here at a quarter to 8 this morning and her commander reported that she had made a circular course around the spot where the Volturno had been abandoned without sighting that vessel or [illegible]

SCALP ITCHED AND BURNED

Scarcely Any Hair on Head. Terrible Itching. Also Bothered With Pimples and Blackheads on Face. Cuticura Soap and Ointment Cured Both Troubles.

Greenwood, Ind. — "First my hair began to fall, then my scalp itched and burned when I became warm. I had pimples on my scalp; my hair was falling out gradually until I had scarcely any hair on my head. I couldn't keep the dandruff off at all. My hair was dry and lifeless and I lost rest at night from the terrible itching sensation. I would pull my hair off and scratch my head any place I happened to be.

"For several years I was bothered with pimples on my face. Some of them were hard red spots, some were full of matter, and many blackheads. I was always picking at them and caused them to be sore. They made my face look so badly I was ashamed to be seen.

"I tried washing my head with Cuticura Soap, dried without rinsing, then put the Cuticura Ointment on and rubbed it into the scalp. I applied the Cuticura Soap and Ointment the same each week until cured. Three months' use of Cuticura Soap and Ointment has made my face as smooth and clean as can be." (Signed) C. M. Hamilton, Sept. 24, 1912.

Cuticura Soap (25c.) and Cuticura Ointment (50c.) are sold by druggists and dealers everywhere. Liberal samples of each mailed free with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. T, Boston."

Men who shave and shampoo with Cuticura Soap will find it best for skin and scalp.

Newlyweds Return and Find 'Friends' Occupying House

All the Time He Calls Her Sweetheart

Ookums painted in red letters three feet high on a strip of canvas surrounding their cottage, and several hundred old shoes hung all over the house last night greeted Mr. and Mrs. Carl St. John, newlyweds, at their residence 1529 North Weber street.

The couple, sweethearts since high schools days, were married yesterday in Ordway, where the bride has relatives, and returned here last night. When they went to their home, which both had planned and built, they found their friends and former schoolmates in possession. Several pounds of rice descended upon them as they entered the front door and as they went into another room they automatically turned a stream of water upon themselves.

The bridegroom is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. St. John and is bookkeeper for the Shields-Metzler Grocery company.

NEW DORMITORY WILL BE OPEN NEXT WEEK

Argo Hall at Institute for Blind Completed at Cost of $35,000

The boys of the Colorado School for the Deaf and Blind will celebrate the opening of Argo hall, their new dormitory, next week. The new building is named in honor of the superintendent. It will accommodate about 60 boys in a fireproof construction throughout and cost $35,000. A brief history of the legislative appropriation for the building and a description of the building itself was recently printed in the official paper of the institution and set forth the following facts:

About three years ago the legislature granted an appropriation of $70,000 to build a new fireproof dormitory for boys. Later Governor Shafroth cut this amount to $60,000 and two months after that the board was notified that probably no more than 50 or 60 per cent of that amount would be realized. Plans had already been made for a building at $60,000 but rather than go ahead on money so badly needed in other departments the plans were changed and the present cottage is the result. It is now planned to erect another similar cottage in a year or so if, in the meantime, the authorities feel that the two cottages will be just as good as the one large building would have been.

ROCK ISLAND PUTS IN NEW TRACK IN 4 DAYS

The Rock Island railroad has made what is believed to be a record for speed in western road building. Two miles of track, to serve the new coal mine of the El Paso Ice and Coal company, near Austin Bluffs, was built in four days. The new mine has a capacity of 1,250 tons a day, and to enable it to supply the market, the Rock Island pushed construction work on the road.

LUMBER RATE HEARING OPENS IN KANSAS CITY

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Oct. 16.—Hearings on the complaint of the Ingham Lumber company of this city against an increase in freight rates on lumber from Arkansas, Oklahoma, Louisiana, Texas and Missouri points to points in Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan and Illinois, were opened here today by C. R. Marshall, special examiner for the interstate commerce commission.

The complaint is directed at the Kansas City Southern, the St. Louis & San Francisco, the Missouri Pacific and the Chicago, Rock Island & Pacific companies. These lines on March 1 last issued a new tariff increasing lumber rates from half to six cents a hundred pounds above the old rate. The new tariff was suspended by the commission pending a hearing.

LISTEN MOTHER DO BE CAREFUL

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the foul waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy, Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup. Adv.

OFFICER REMOVED FOR I. W. W. ACTIVITIES

PORTLAND, Ore., Oct. 16.—Governor West revoked today the commission of Lieutenant Commander E. E. Straw of the Oregon naval militia, who is mayor of Marshfield, basing his action on the alleged activities of the officer in the deportation of Industrial Workers of the World from Coos county, during the labor troubles last summer. Last week the government removed the same officer from the state naval board on the ground of nonattendance at meetings.

At the end of 1912 there were employed in the gold mines of the Transvaal 24,334 whites and 205,488 natives, the aggregate wages paid out for the year being $68,881,758.

IGER STRENGTH FEARED BY MORMONS WHO ARRIVE HERE THIS MORNING AT 11

Both Teams Have Seven New Men; Utah Weaker on Line but Faster in Backfield, Is Opinion

When the whistle blows tomorrow afternoon at Washburn field and sets the Tigers and Mormons in motion every coach in the conference will have his ear to the ground to hear what kind of football the Tigers are playing this year. The first conference game of the season of importance and the fact that both teams have seven new men in their lineups makes tomorrow's contest one of importance. Utah fears the Tigers but the Tigers do not fear Utah. There is a spirit of confidence in the C. C. camp that does not reach the much-feared overconfidence state, but makes the men less nervous and more anxious for the whistle.

Coach Rothgeb yesterday afternoon put his team through the last strenuous practice, and every man came out in perfect physical condition. Last night he gathered his men in the gymnasium and had some signal drill and talked to the players about the kind of play he wanted them to use. Rothgeb is always reticent before a game. But he is well pleased over the outlook for a victory tomorrow.

For the first time in years, the Tigers will have capable substitutes. The hard-hitting backfield, consisting of Taylor and Esmoil at halves and Playfair at full, can be substituted by Reese and Stocks at halves and Moye at full. Cheese, all-conference halfback last year, who is on the reserve list this year, is expected to get into the game at a time when speed will be needed more than the line-plugging tactics. Coach Rothgeb has devised some trick plays that are aimed at the line, and with the shift so successful last Saturday, the entire first backfield probably will make gains, unless the Mormon line is better than it is quoted as being.

From reports, the Utah backfield is speedy and has three veteran players. Two of the men, reports say, are 10-second track men.

Scouts from the various teams in the conference are expected to attend tomorrow's game to get "dope" on both teams. Owing to the fact that the game will be the most important staged here, and the only conference struggle, a large crowd is expected. The High school will be inactive tomorrow and has promised a rooting section.

Visitors Here Today.

The Mormons reach here this morning on Denver & Rio Grande No. 6. The college rooters will meet the players with a band and escort them to their hotel. Whether the Utah team will have a preliminary practice this afternoon is not known, but it is believed that the men will not put on their uniforms until tomorrow.

There will be a big "pepper" meeting tonight at the college, when enough enthusiasm is to last for the season is to be aroused. The Tigers will go through light signal practice this afternoon. Captain Lewis, who sustained injuries during the first two weeks, will not be out for the team again this year, his injuries being more serious than was first believed. Myers, last year's leader, will be out again during the season.

Mines Fit for Wyoming.

The School of Mines squad is in fine shape for its game with Wyoming, Saturday. After the workout last evening the coaches were more optimistic than they have been this season. The hard task of plugging the line, with the material at hand, was good in spots. One practice the players would look like stars, but the next evening they would apparently forget all the football Kistler and Buckingham had taught them.

The team, as a whole, is confident not only winning the Wyoming contest, but also of carrying away the championship.

Captain Delautre and Hinman, the full, attended the Colorado college-Wyoming game in the Springs last Saturday and stated that they were satisfied that their team could play good football as was shown on that day.

Aggies vs. Ministers.

Rumors have been going the rounds that coach Hughes of the Aggies was going to send in his second team against the Ministers in the game here Saturday. When asked about it, he said that he would consider himself lucky to win with his strongest lineup. There isn't any danger of the Farmers starting the game with subs. The fact that Hagerman and Frisbie will start in the first quarter, means that these two men, at this time look better than Cross and McCullough, and that is the reason they are going into the game.

These two stars have been making a great showing in the past two weeks, and, being heavier than Cross and McCullough, the coach is figuring on using them.

MIMMACK

Tiger center, one of the seven new men, who tomorrow will go through conference football fire. Mimmack is becoming more efficient in passing every day and his defense last Saturday was high class.

The Aggie line will be lighter than Denver, but the backfield will be heavier. Murphy no doubt will play full and do the kicking. Devilbiss, Cross and McCullough have been slightly injured during the week, but will be in shape to get into the game if called upon.

"I'll Umpire"-Wilson; Talks to Old Players

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16. Pop Anson, Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington Americans, and Brownie Burke, mascot of the Cincinnati Reds, dropped in on President Wilson today and engaged him in a conversation on baseball.

"I used to tell folks during the campaign," said Anson to the president, "that Taft was content to run things from the bench, that Teddy wanted to be pitcher, first baseman and everything, and do his own rooting besides, but that the Democrats bunched hits and won out."

"Well," replied the president, "there was nothing left for me to do then, except umpire the game."

Vigorous Scrimmages Speed Up Utah Team; Heavier Than Last Year

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 16.—The Utah football team, 18 men, and Coaches Bennion and Nally, left for Colorado Springs this afternoon in a special car. Injuries to players have decreased the chances for the Mormons winning and the coaches are none to optimistic over the outcome of the game.

Coach Bennion took with him a large blackboard on which he will give lessons in football to his team. The men have not had a training table this year and on the trip the coaches will see that their diet is correct. When college opened last month there was a chaotic mass of material from which the coaches were to pick a team which will represent the university in the conference this year. For a time the task looked hopeless and indeed it was several weeks before anything definite could be done.

By holding scrimmage practice often, the coaches selected the men who to them appeared the most fit to send on the trip to Colorado. The practice game with the soldiers Saturday was the final workout, and at last the squad has assumed definite shape and the coaches know pretty well what they have to work with this season.

It was only last week that Bennion and Nelly arrived at a final decision, and now it is up to them to forget for a time the rest of the large and willing squad and concentrate upon that small group of 15 men who will take the trip to Colorado.

Little is known as yet concerning the strength of the Tigers. Last year it was reported early in the year that they would be very strong, but they were given a 43 to 0 defeat by Utah. The fact that Utah had one of the best if not the very best team it has ever had and that the game was played in Salt Lake just after an unlucky defeat of the east benchers by Colorado shows that probably the Tigers could have been pretty strong and still have lost by a large score. This year the varsity is a new bunch, while many of last year's men are back at the Springs college and therefore should be a much stronger aggregation than last year.

The injuries to "U" players last week has disheartened Coach Bennion a little and made him fear scrimmage more than he has done in the past. For that reason it is hard to line up yet just what the lineup will be.

Norm Hamilton, one of the veterans for the past three years and the best line plunger and all around halfback on the campus, is still suffering from a badly sprained ankle received in the alumni game 10 days ago. The joint is much swollen and has kept Hamilton out of the practice a large part of the time. Bennion is paying all the attention possible to the injury in the hope that Hamilton will be well by Saturday. With Hamilton and Love both out of the battle, the backfield would be hopelessly handicapped.

Commission Rules in St. Louis Series Now

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 15.—Announcement was made today that President Hedges of the local American league team, and President Britton of the St. Louis Nationals, have agreed that in future contests between the two teams, the national commission shall govern. This action resulted from the fight at the last game of the postseason series Monday when the umpires had no real authority over the players.

The two teams have a five-year contract for spring and fall, seven-game series each year. The contract was signed three years ago.

World's Record Base Stealer Out on Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Oct. 16.—There has been so much recent controversy over the stolen base record of Jimmy Johnston, center fielder of the San Francisco team of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, that President Alfred Baum of the league gave out today this statement:

The greatest number of bases stolen by any one player in any one season of which we have record was 136. That record was made in 1888 by Harry Stovey, then of the Athletics.

Since that time there have been many changes in the rules. In modern baseball, as we know it today, it may be said that the best record thus far is that of Ralph Meyers, formerly of the Boston Nationals, who when with the Spokane club last year, stole 118 bases.

Johnston, this season past Stovey, to date, 136 bases, and he has two weeks more to go, so that a new record for minor leagues and for modern baseball in any league is almost sure to be made.

John Bunny, Actor and Fan Gone Mad

When Merkle, the Giants' first baseman, swatted a homerun in the seventh inning of the fourth game of the world's series in Philadelphia, Friday, John Bunny, famous moving picture actor and fanatic Giants' booster, was fast asleep. Mr. Bunny is not so young as he was once on a time. A great cheer went up from other fans. It awakened Bunny.

"Whazza matter?" cried Bunny sitting up.

"Gwan," cried a Bowery fan, near him.

Bunny rose to his feet incontinently with the crowd about him, and he gathered that Merkle, his idol, had knocked a homerun, with Burns and Murray, outfielders of the Giants already on bases. The camera man, just in front, caught him as he awoke to a realization that Merkle had temporarily at least put the Giants in the game.

Decide Woman's Golf Title Tomorrow; U. S. and England Still in

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 16.—As a result of today's play in the third round of the women's national golf championship at the Wilmington Country club, England and the United States will contest in the final match on Saturday for the American title. Miss Muriel the British and Canadian champion, today defeated Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck of Philadelphia, while Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, a former British champion, won from Miss Fannie C. Osgood, the Massachusetts title holder.

Miss Harriet Curtis of Boston, former national champion, captured her match from Miss Mabel Harrison, the Irish title holder. The match between Miss Marion Hollins of New York, the Metropolitan champion and Mrs. E. H. Cozby of Philadelphia resulted in a victory for the former.

Tomorrow Miss Hollins will play Miss Curtis, winner of the semifinal matches, while Miss Dodd and Miss Ravenscroft are matched in the other semifinal.

Portland Wins Title Pacific Coast League

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 16.—By winning the first game of today's double-header here, the Portland team of the Pacific Coast Baseball league clinched the 1913 pennant. The league season does not close until the end of the month, but Portland has a winning percentage that cannot be overcome. Oakland, Cal., won the league championship last year.

TROUBLE OVER NEGRO IN MO. VALLEY CONFERENCE

Kansas Claims It Will Not Play Nebraska Because Rules Are Being Broken.

MANHATTAN, Kan., Oct. 16.—Trouble is brewing in Missouri valley football circles because the University of Nebraska played Ross, a negro guard, against the Kansas State Agricultural college team last Saturday. Coach Stiehm of Nebraska is said to have announced he intends to play the negro in every valley game. W. O. Hamilton, manager of athletics at the University of Kansas, said today a "gentleman's agreement" among the conference managers made negroes ineligible, and the negro would not play against Kansas.

Then Coach Lowman of the Agricultural college announced if Nebraska did not play Ross against Kansas and other valley teams he would protest Saturday's game.

"We had an agreement with Nebraska before last Saturday's game," said Lowman. "That if we permitted Ross to play against us he would be in the lineup against all the other valley teams, and we are going to hold Nebraska to it."

It is generally understood at Lawrence that the University of Kansas players will refuse to play against a negro.

Annual Freshman Terror Game at Washburn Today

Grammar School Kids and Parents Will Be Guests of Management; Expect Hard Fought Contest

When the Colorado college freshmen, in Herman Foreman's and quarter on the and the Foreman meet this afternoon at Washburn field in their annual battle, a fiercely fought game is expected. The kittens have been locking the Tigers night after night and present a stubborn defense and a hard hitting eleven will be in action. The kittens group of backfield men. The line is well outweighed, the Brown and White team but will lack the advantage of careful coaching and training that the High school lads have been getting under Dr. Acker's careful eye.

A record crowd for Washburn field football is expected owing to the invitation extended by the management to all the grammar school kiddies of the region and all the school pupils in Colorado City and Manitou. No tickets are to be distributed but the children will be admitted free, as will their parents. This method of familiarizing the school children with the game and with increasing the interest of all concerned, according to Dr. Acker, will not only increase crowds here later in the season, but will bring out more football material for the teams in the future.

The Tiger kittens have been coached by Coach Acker, who is a good line plunger while Hoffner, quarterback is a peppery quarterback and a good punter.

The Terrors advanced offense will probably bother the little Tigers. Coach Acker has some small forward pass and onside kick plays that should be ground gainers. The two ends, Lendrum and Ahl are speedy and good men in any department. The backfield, Nifong, Holman, Gray and Davis, make up a hard quartet to stop.

Black, Koch, Winans and Brown will look after the officials' positions this afternoon.

The lineup is as follows:

Freshmen.		Terrors.
Beavers	le	Ahl

JOHNSON TURNS DOWN $15,000 STAGE COIN

Vaudeville Does Not Appeal to Speedy Hurler; Turns Down Offer Cold

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Walter Johnson has turned down a theatrical engagement which would have netted him $15,000 in 10 weeks. He was made a proposition by the agent of a booking firm here to do a monologue turn on a vaudeville circuit at $1,500 per week and a 10-week contract. Johnson did not as much as give the matter consideration, but turned it down flat, much to the surprise of the agent, who argued that it was easy money.

Johnson is now in the same class of modesty with Frank Baker and Hans Wagner, both of whom have had such offers, but have not accepted them. Johnson insists that while he is playing baseball he is going to attend strictly to business and that no sort of a proposition can lure him to the stage. Even Griffith would not have objected to having Johnson pick up this easy money, but the agent found it useless to waste his breath trying to get Johnson to sign his contract.

Johnson's new contract with the Washingtons calls for $12,500 a year, and Manager Griffith counts himself lucky to get the great pitcher at that or any other price.

Ball Players Made More Than John D. During the Series

John D. Rockefeller, generally credited with being the wealthiest man in the world, will have to grow a little wealthier before his earning capacity in a spring race can compete with that of the members of the Athletics or Giants. He may have them in a six days free for all, but the ball players would leave him at the post in a hundred yard dash.

The oil king is credited with an earning capacity of $10.20 a minute, sleeping or waking. The Athletics in the world's series made $51.74 a minute, or about 86 cents a second, while the defeated Giants made $84.49 a minute, or a trifle more than 57 cents a second.

Milwaukee Ties up Series With Denver

DENVER, Oct. 16.—Milwaukee evened the score in the series for the minor league baseball championship here today, defeating Denver 5 to 3. The Western league and American association pennant winners now have two games each to their credit. The next game is scheduled for Saturday.

Score:		R.	H.	E.
Denver	1 0 0 0 0 2 0 0 0	3	9	1
Milwaukee	0 0 0 0 0 1 2 2 *	5	5	1

GIVES MR. RICKEY 10 YEARS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 16.—Branch Rickey, the new manager of the Browns, has been assured by Owner Robert Lee Hedges that he will have a chance seldom offered to a manager to show what he can make out of the Browns. In other words, Hedges will give Rickey 10 years in which to develop a team. Whether the Browns run last or first during the next 10 years, Rickey will be retained, and with the remarkable show of confidence that he has already been shown by the players, the fans are beginning for the first time in years to believe that St. Louis may really have a good team.

"BRAD" STREIT HAILED AS ANOTHER WENDELL

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 16.—Comment about the campus was divided as to the lesson of Saturday's game with Bucknell. The visitors were no mean foe, although their line was heavier and they played good, heady football.

There is no question that Princeton has a star in "Brad" Streit. Not since the days of Eddie Hart have the Tigers possessed a plunger of such enormous strength and energy. Saturday Streit flashed through the Bucknell line on repeated plunges with the resistless ferocity of Harvard's famous Wendell.

Bender, Plank, Matty, Learn, and the Minneapolis ball club annually put an awful crimp in "youth will be served."

LISTEN MOTHER DO BE CAREFUL

Don't scold your fretful, peevish child. See if tongue is coated; this is a sure sign its little stomach, liver and bowels are clogged with sour waste.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomachache, indigestion, diarrhoea, give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the food waste, the sour bile and fermenting food passes out of the bowels and you have a well and playful child again. Children love this harmless "fruit laxative," and mothers can rest easy after giving it, because it never fails to make their little "insides" clean and sweet.

Keep it handy. Mother! A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on the bottle. Remember there are counterfeits sold here, so surely look and see that yours is made by the "California Fig Syrup Company." Hand back with contempt any other fig syrup. Adv.

When the whistle blows tomorrow afternoon at Washburn field and sets Tigers and Mormons in motion every coach in the conference will have his to the ground to hear what kind of football the Tigers are playing this year. e first conference game of the season of importance and the fact that both ms have seven new men in their lineups, makes tomorrow's contest one of portance. Utah fears the Tigers but the Tigers do not fear Utah. There a spirit of confidence in the C. Aggies vs. Ministers.

umors have been going the rounds coach Higbee of the Aggies was going to send in his second team against the Ministers in the game here Saturday. When asked about it, he said that he would consider himself lucky to start with his strongest lineup. There isn't any danger of the Farmers starting the game with subs. The fact that Hagerman and Fisbie will start in the first quarter, means that these two men at this time look better than Cross and McCullough, and that is the reason they are going into the game.

These two stars have been making a great showing in the past two weeks,

The Aggie line will be lighter than Denver, but the backfield will be heavier. Murphy no doubt will play full and do the kicking. Devilbiss, Cross and McCullough have been slightly injured during the week, but will be in shape to get into the game if called upon.

"I'll Umpire"-Wilson; Talks to Old Players

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—Pop Anson, Clark Griffith, manager of the Washington Americans, and Brownie Burke, mascot of the Cincinnati Reds, dropped in on President Wilson today and engaged him in a conversation on baseball.

"I used to tell folks during the campaign," said Anson to the president, "that Taft was content to run things from the bench, that Teddy wanted to be pitcher, first baseman and everything, and do his own rooting besides, but that the Democrats bunched hits and won out."

"Well," replied the president, "there was nothing left for me to do then, except umpire the game."

Utah Coaches Fear the Tigers; New Bear Yarn

HAMILTON AND LOVE ARE ON SPRAINED ANKLES

Vigorous Scrimmages Speed Up Utah Team; Heavier Than Last Year

SALT LAKE CITY, Oct. 16.—The Utah football team, 18 men, and Coaches Bennion and Nally, left for Colorado Springs this afternoon in a special car. Injuries to players have decreased the chances for the Mormons winning and the coaches are none to optimistic over the outcome of the game.

Coach Bennion took with him a large blackboard on which he will give lessons in football to his team. The men have not had a training table this year and on the trip the coaches will see that their diet is correct. When college opened last month there was a chaotic mass of material from which the coaches were to pick a team which will represent the university in the conference this year. For a time the task looked hopeless and indeed it was several weeks before anything definite could be done.

By holding scrimmage practice often, the coaches selected the men who to them appeared the most fit to send on the trip to Colorado. The practice game with the soldiers Saturday was the final workout, and at last the squad has assumed definite shape and the coaches know pretty well what they have to work with this season.

It was only last week that Bennion and Nelly arrived at a final decision, and now it is up to them to forget for a time the rest of the large and willing squad and concentrate upon that small group of 15 men who will take the trip to Colorado.

Little is known as yet concerning the strength of the Tigers. Last year it was reported early in the year that they would be very strong, but they were given a 43 to 0 defeat by Utah. The fact that Utah had one of the best if not the very best team it has ever had, and that the game was played in Salt Lake just after an unlucky defeat of the east benchers by Colorado shows that probably the Tigers could have been pretty strong and still have lost by a large score. This year the varsity is a new bunch, while many of last year's men are back at the Springs college and therefore should be a much stronger aggregation than last year.

The injuries to U. players last week has disheartened Coach Bennion a little and made him fear scrimmage more than he has done in the past. For that reason it is hard to line up yet just what the lineup will be.

Norm Hamilton, one of the veterans for the past three years and the best line plunger and all around halfback on the campus, is still suffering from a badly sprained ankle received in the alumni game 10 days ago. The joint is much swollen and has kept Hamilton out of the practice a large part of the time. Bennion is paying all the attention possible to the injury in the hope that Hamilton will be well by Saturday. With Hamilton and Love both out of the battle, the backfield would be hopelessly handicapped.

Commission Rules in St. Louis Series Now

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 16.—Announcement was made today that President Hedges of the local American league team, and President Britton of the St. Louis Nationals, have agreed that in future contests between the two teams, the national commission shall govern. This action resulted from the fight at the last game of the postseason series Monday when the umpires had no real authority over the players.

The two teams have a five-year contract for spring and fall seven-game series each year. The contract was signed three years ago.

World's Record Base Stealer Out on Coast

SAN FRANCISCO, Calif., Oct. 16.—There has been so much recent controversy over the stolen base record of Jimmy Johnston, center fielder of the San Francisco team of the Pacific Coast Baseball league, that President Alfred Farrin of the league gave out today this statement:

"The greatest number of bases stolen by any one player in any one season of which we have record was 136. That record was made in 1888 by Harry Stovey, then of the Athletics.

"Since that time there have been many claimants to the title. In modern baseball, as we know it today, it may be said that the best record thus far is that of Ralph Meyers, formerly of the Boston Nationals, who when with the Spokane club last year stole 116 bases.

"Johnston, this season has stolen to date 115 bases, and he has two weeks more to go, so that a new record for minor leagues and for modern baseball in any league is almost sure to be made.

John Bunny, Actor and Fan Gone Mad

When Merkle, the Giants' first baseman, awaited a homerun in the seventh inning of the fourth game of the world's series in Philadelphia, Friday, John Bunny, famous moving picture actor and fanatic Giants' booster, was fast asleep. Mr. Bunny is not so young as he was once on a time. A great cheer went up from other fans. It awakened Bunny.

"Whazza matter?" cried Bunny sitting up.

"Gwan," cried a Bowery fan, near him.

Bunny rose to his feet involuntarily with the crowd about him, and he gathered that Merkle, his idol, had knocked a homerun, with Burns and Murray, outfielders of the Giants already on bases. The camera man, just in front, caught him as he awoke to a realization that Merkle had temporarily at least put the Giants in the game.

Decide Woman's Golf Title Tomorrow; U. S. and England Still in

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 16.—As a result of today's play in the third round of the women's national golf championship at the Wilmington country club, England and the United States will contest in the final match on Saturday for the American title. Miss Muriel, the British and Canadian champion, today defeated Mrs. C. H. Vanderbeck of Philadelphia, while Miss Gladys Ravenscroft, a former British champion, won from Miss Fannie C. Osgood, the Massachusetts title holder.

Miss Harriet Curtis of Boston, former national champion, captured her match from Miss Mabel Harrison, the Irish title holder. Rye watch between Miss Marion Hollins of New York, the Metropolitan champion, and Mrs. E. H. Fraley of Philadelphia resulted in a victory for the former.

Tomorrow Miss Hollins will play Miss Curtis in one of the semifinal matches while Miss Udall and Miss Ravenscroft are matched in the other semifinal.

TROUBLE OVER NEGRO IN MO. VALLEY CONFERENCE

Kansas Claims It Will Not Play Nebraska Because Rules Are Being Broken.

MANHATTAN, Kan., Oct. 16.—Trouble is brewing in Missouri valley football circles because the University of Nebraska played Ross, a negro guard, against the Kansas State Agricultural college team last Saturday. Coach Stiehm of Nebraska is said to have announced he intends to play the negro in every valley game. W. O. Hamilton, manager of athletics at the University of Kansas, said today a "gentleman's agreement" among the conference managers made negroes ineligible, and the negro would not play against Kansas.

Then Coach Lowman of the Agricultural college announced if Nebraska did not play Ross against Kansas and other valley teams he would protest Saturday's game.

"We had an agreement with Nebraska before last Saturday's game," said Lowman, "that if we permitted Ross to play against us he would be in the lineup against all the other valley teams, and we are going to hold Nebraska to it."

It is generally understood at Lawrence that the University of Kansas players will refuse to play against a negro.

Annual Freshman-Terror Game at Washburn Today

Grammar School Kids and Parents Will Be Guests of Management: Expect Hard Fought Contest

When the Colorado college freshmen, by Herron, formerly sub quarter on the varsity, Denver university last Saturday afternoon at Washburn field in their annual battle two full years matched a stubborn defense and a hard hitting eleven against the Tigers. The Kittens will outweigh the Brown and White team but will lack the advantage of careful coaching and training that the High school lads have been having under Dr. Acker's careful eye.

A record crowd for Western food football is expected owing to the invitation extended by the management to all the grammar school kiddies of the region and all high school pupils in Colorado City and Manitou. No tickets are to be distributed but the children will be admitted free, as will their parents. This method of familiarizing the school children with the game and with increasing the interest of all concerned, according to Dr. Acker, will not only increase crowds here later in the season but will bring out more football material for the teams in the future.

JOHNSON TURNS DOWN $15,000 STAGE COIN

Vaudeville Does Not Appeal to Speedy Hurler; Turns Down Offer Cold

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Walter Johnson has turned down a theatrical engagement which would have netted him $15,000 in 10 weeks. He was made a proposition by the agent of a booking firm here to do a monologue turn on a vaudeville circuit at $1,500 per week and a 10-week contract. Johnson did not as much as give the matter consideration, but turned it down flat, much to the surprise of the agent, who argued that it was easy money.

Johnson is now in the same class of modesty with Frank Baker and Hans Wagner, both of whom have had such offers, but have not accepted them. Johnson insists that while he is playing baseball he is going to attend strictly to business and that no sort of a proposition can lure him to the stage. Even Griffith would not have objected to having Johnson pick up this easy money, but the agent found it useless to waste his breath trying to get Johnson to sign his contract.

Johnson's new contract with the Washingtons calls for $12,500 a year, and Manager Griffith counts himself lucky to get the great pitcher at that or any other price.

Ball Players Made More Than John D. During the Series

John D. Rockefeller, generally credited with being the wealthiest man in the world, will have to grow a little wealthier before his earning capacity in a sprint race can compare with that of the members of the Athletics or Giants. He may have them in a six days race for all but the ball players would leave him at the post in a hundred yard dash.

The oil king is credited with an earning capacity of $10.20 a minute, sleeping or waking. The Athletics in the world's series made $51.74 a minute, or about 86 cents a second, while the defeated Giants made $34.49 a minute, or a trifle more than 57 cents a second.

Milwaukee Ties up Series With Denver

DENVER, Oct. 16.—Milwaukee evened the score in the series for the minor league baseball championship here today, defeating Denver 5 to 4. The Western league and American association pennant winners now have two games each to their credit. The next game is scheduled for Saturday.

GIVES MR. RICKEY 10 YEARS

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 16.—Branch Rickey, the new manager of the Browns, has been assured by Owner Robert Lee Hedges that he will have a chance seldom offered to a manager to show what he can make out of the Browns. In other words, Hedges will give Rickey 10 years in which to develop a team. Whether the Browns run last or first during the next 10 years, Rickey will be retained, and with the remarkable show of confidence that he has already been shown by the players, the fans are beginning for the first time in years to believe that St. Louis may really have a good team.

"BRAD" STREIT HAILED AS ANOTHER WENDELL

PRINCETON, N. J., Oct. 16.—Comment about the campus was divided as to the lesson of Saturday's game with Bucknell. The visitors were no mean foe, although their line was heavier and they played good, heady football.

There is no question that Princeton has a star in "Brad" Streit. Not since the days of Eddie Hart have the Tigers possessed a plunger of such enormous strength and energy. Saturday Streit flashed through the Bucknell line on repeated plunges with the resistless ferocity of Harvard's famous Wendell.

Bender, Blank, Matty, Leach, and the Minneapolis ball club annually put an awful crimp in "youth will be served."

"PROGRESSIVE" DEMOCRACY

THE selection of John T. Barnett as Democratic national committeeman from Colorado, to succeed the late T. J. McCue, is interesting chiefly as an evidence of the progressiveness—or lack of it—of the Democratic state organization.

Barnett, who a few years ago was Attorney-General, was backed by the Ammons administration, Julius Aichele, Bob Speer and the beet sugar interests. His opponent was Thomas J. Tynan, warden of the penitentiary at Canon City, who was supported by Senators Thomas and Shafroth, and who is said to have had the indorsement of President Wilson. But Julius Aichele openly boasted that he would show the Senators "where they belonged," and the result proves that he was able to do it. At the meeting of the committee last Monday Barnett was elected by a vote of 85 to 56.

Perhaps it doesn't make very much difference to the people of Colorado, or even to the Democrats, whether the Democratic national committeeman from this state is a man of progressive tendencies, like Tynan, or a dyed-in-the-wool reactionary, like Barnett. Democratic progressivism is merely a pose anyway, an effort to hold voters in line by offering them the shadow without the substance, while the party itself steadily drifts back to its old conservative moorings. The selection of Barnett is a straw showing the direction of the wind.

From the standpoint of politics, however, we are glad to see it, for every such incident only serves to clinch the argument that there is but one place for people of progressive views, and that is in the Progressive party.

A CRITIC OF DRY FARMING

THE Iowa farmer who rides across the dry plains of eastern Colorado for the first time is not to be blamed for a certain degree of skepticism as to the practical value of attempts to cultivate them without irrigation. He is accustomed to the visible effects of abundant rainfall, and of course the dry lands appear to him as but little better than deserts. But it is rather surprising to find a professor in an agricultural college willing to publish in this fashion:

W OIL-BURNING WARSHIP LAUNCHED

Queen Eliz... Theory in Battleship Building at Portsmouth

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., Oct 16—An... novelty in battleships, the Queen Elizabeth which carries an immense armament and uses oil instead of coal for her motive power, was launched at the royal navy dock yards here today. The ship whose keel was laid on October 21, 1912, is of an entirely new type. Details of her construction have been kept secret. It is generally believed, however, that her armament is to consist of ten 15-inch guns mounted in pairs in barbettes while her secondary armament of four-inch or six-inch guns is also to be placed behind protective armor. Under ordinary circumstances the carrying of such a big battery would mean a considerable increase in displacement but this has been obviated by the utilization of oil fuel in place of coal.

The substitution of oil tanks for coal bunkers means great economy in weight and space and in this way it has been possible to increase the offensive and defensive armament and at the same time keep the size and displacement of the warship within limits. Should oil prove successful in the case of the Queen Elizabeth, all large warships of the British navy will in the future use oil.

The new vessel was not quite a year on the building ways and will be ready for service in less than two years from the time her first keel plate was laid. More work was done on her before launching than is usually the case in battleships. With a launching weight of 15,000 tons she was the heaviest craft ever sent afloat from a building slip in any British naval dock yard.

...E IS BEING HELD ON MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

SEATTLE, Wash., Oct. 16—After an investigation today of the killing of Harry N. Farr and the injuring of Fred C. Hoglund and Thomas Simmons last night by an automobile driven by Laurence Duke, son of Leslie Duke, the tobacco manufacturer, Prosecuting Attorney John F. Murphy announced tonight that Duke should be held on a charge of manslaughter.

Murphy declared that the breaking of the steering gear, which Duke says was responsible for the crash, did not occur until Duke's machine struck a telegraph pole after smashing into the second car.

Duke was released tonight on $5,000 bond.

What the Press Agents Say:

"READY MONEY"

Miss Nina Blake who plays Grace Thayer the leading feminine role in James Montgomery's comedy Ready Money, the widely discussed play which comes to the Opera house tomorrow matinee and night puts quite as much stress on dressing each part she portrays as she does on speaking the lines.

Her vast experience has taught her that one is as essential as the other. In fact Miss Blake referring to this branch of her profession says: According to my way of thinking to look the part is everything and I regret to state that stage folk especially women who give the item the attention it requires are very much in the minority.

It is the average woman's time both on and off the stage to dress in accordance with the fads and follies that seem to worm their way into our lives over night. Fashions of today are fickle and not to be taken too seriously. Individuality is rather misleading to average women who consider it as a necessary means to the end.

The well gowned women of the present day are those who study most carefully selection—eliminating everything that is nonessential, and using a most discriminating eye as to the general effect.

The making of a gown is something else that is to be considered. I would rather by far wear a dress of burlap provided it fitted me, to a Worth gown of broadcloth that would turn out to be ill-fitting.

Then again one must study color both as to its becomingness and modishness. Every season the demand increases for new shades of the primary colors. Frequently these do not harmonize and are unbecoming to the average woman but yet are so artfully displayed in the millinery and dry goods emporiums that they set aside the better judgment of the most conservative dressers. In the choice of colors, too, the relation of the new to the old wardrobe each season must be considered. For instance how the new hat will harmonize with the best of the last year's gowns.

I recall having witnessed a performance in New York city prior to this season's opening where an actress and one who is favorably known, wore a spring hat, a boa and muff and low shoes, a trinity of conditions that made her appear ridiculous not alone in my eyes but in many of the spectators who saw the oddity of the situation as I did. Yes, getting clothes is one thing and knowing how to wear them is another.

In the part Miss Blake is now portraying the character calls for the highest pinnacle of fashion and judging from the fit and color harmony of the gowns she wears can certainly be regarded in the light of an authority.

"THE WHITE SLAVE"

The presentation of "The White Slave" at the Opera House Wednesday evening, October 20, recalls to those of a passing generation the pioneer of American dramatists, Bartley Campbell whose plays enjoyed phenomenal prosperity and popularity 30 years ago.

Bartley Campbell was born in Allegheny City, in that over-river portion of modern Pittsburg. The room in which he was born remains practically the same as on that August, day, 70 years ago, when the future great playwright first opened his eyes therein.

During his youth he undertook the study of law. This was in 1856, when he was only 13 years old. At the time he scarcely knew his own mind and after two years he abandoned all thought of the bar and entered what was more nearly his life profession, he became a newspaper man, beginning journalism as a reporter on the staff of the Pittsburg Post, at that time the only Democratic newspaper in Western Pennsylvania.

Shortly after this time politics began to attract attention of the young cub reporter. In fact he became a stump speaker for the Democratic party during the Civil war days of 1863-4. In 1868 at the age of 25, he started the Evening Mail in Pittsburg, being at that time the youngest newspaper proprietor in the country, but editing a newspaper and financing it at the same time proved too arduous a task so that when a sheriff's sale relieved Campbell of his burdens, he drifted early in 1868, to New Orleans, stopping over in Cincinnati to work on the staff of the Cincinnati Examiner for a time and at Louisville where he worked for some time on the Courier Journal under the guidance of the gifted Henry Watterson.

Soon after his arrival in New Orleans he became attached to the Picayune which [illegible] short time to the publication of what he called the Southern Monthly Magazine which included among its contributors [illegible] pages some of the leading writers of the south. It was about this time that Warren Stephens appointed him official reporter of the house of representatives at Baton Rouge.

New Way to Make Apple Dumplings

Served With Hard Sauce or Cream and Sugar

By Mrs. Janet McKenzie Hill, Editor of the Boston Cooking School Magazine

Here is a new way to make apple dumplings that will surely please every housewife, for it is not necessary to have whole apples, and the juice cannot run out and burn as with apple dumplings where the apple is placed in the center and the dough turned up around it. The biscuit part forms a crispy shell that holds the apples and juice.

K C Apple Dumplings

One and one-half cups sifted flour; ½ teaspoonful salt; 3 level teaspoonfuls K C Baking Powder; ½ cup shortening, about ½ cup milk; apples.

Fill the cups of a buttered muffin pan with pared and sliced apples, sprinkle with salt and turn two or three tablespoonfuls of water into each cup. Sift together three times, the flour, salt and baking powder, work in the shortening, and mix to a soft dough with the milk. Drop the dough from a spoon with the apples in the cups, giving it a smooth exterior. Let bake about twenty-five minutes. Invert the pan on a large serving-dish. Put a spoonful of hard sauce above the apple in each dumpling and finish with a grating of nutmeg.

The Corporation Different

Every once in awhile we run across a business man of strength and capability who is under a misapprehension regarding our company.

Because of a lack of knowledge he classes us with those who pay big dividends on watered stock.

He thinks our rates are too high because he doesn't know that we have no bonds, no preferred stock and no water in the common stock.

A little straight talk, with figures to back it, is enough to set such a man right.

We have facts and figures to prove that we only pay out in dividends a reasonable return (7 per cent), on the actual money invested in telephone plant.

Perhaps you are one of those who didn't know this.

You want to be fair, don't you?

MRS. EATON IS ON TRIAL FOR MURDER OF HUSBAND

16-Year-Old Daughter Testifies That Mother Was Insanely Jealous of the Admiral.

PLYMOUTH, Mass., Oct. 16—Mrs. Jennie May Eaton, on trial for the murder of her husband, Rear Admiral Joseph Giles Eaton, U. S. N. retired, heard today her 16-year-old daughter Dorothy Virginia Ainsworth, support the contention of the prosecution that she was unreasonably jealous towards her husband. Under the questioning of District Attorney Barker Dorothy testified that her mother was easily angered and had continual hallucinations that the admiral was trying to poison the family.

Dorothy, an attractive girl, spent two hours upon the witness stand. She had not finished when court adjourned. It was the first day of testimony in the trial.

In the early part of today's session, Assistant District Attorney Fred Kalzmann outlined the case for the prosecution claiming jealousy as a motive for the alleged crime. Dorothy's story substantiated in several particulars the points on which Mr. Kalzmann had placed emphasis.

An indication of the probable plea of the defense was given in the cross-examination of Medical Examiner Gilman Osgood by Attorney Charles A. Morse. His questions were aimed to bring out the possibility that Admiral Eaton might have partaken of the poison in connection with a drug habit.

The government claims the poison was administered by Mrs. Eaton in tea, coffee and other beverages at meals. In questioning Dorothy, the district attorney was unable to secure any declaration that Mrs. Eaton had exclusive opportunity to place poison in the admiral's cup.

While her daughter was testifying, Mrs. Eaton sat quietly in her chair, but occasionally leaned forward and caught Dorothy's glances. Dorothy always smiled back at her mother, but these incidents appeared to upset her and she seemed to find difficulty in answering the district attorney's questions.

In outlining the case Mr. Kalzmann admitted that the case against the prisoner was largely circumstantial.

Prof. Lorenzo Whitney, the Harvard medical school chemist, would testify, Mr. Kalzmann said that his analysis of the admiral's stomach revealed the presence of 15 grains of the poison. Two grains was enough to kill.

In concluding, the prosecutor said that if the jury should find that Mrs. Eaton committed the crime while laboring under hallucinations that constituted an irresistible impulse, the commonwealth would be satisfied with a verdict of not guilty, by reason of insanity.

JAPAN SOLICITOUS OVER EFFECT NEW TARIFF BILL

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16—Japanese Ambassador Chinda called at the state department today to inquire what would be the effect upon Japanese shipping of the section of the new tariff law, which provides for a differential of 5 per cent on imports in American ships. Incidentally the ambassador directed attention to the fact that the treaty of 1911 between America and Japan contained a favored nation clause which, in his opinion, would warrant the allowance of this differential to Japanese ships.

Acting Secretary Moore said pending an opinion from the attorney general construing the differential provision the state department was unable to define the application of the law to foreign ships.

President Wilson told callers today that he was aware of the opinion of the department of justice and indicated that he was considering the proposal to repeal the clause.

WE EAT TOO MUCH. THAT WHICH CLOGS KIDNEYS, THEN THE BACK HURTS

Most folks forget that the kidneys, like the bowels, get sluggish and clogged and need a flushing occasionally, else we have backache and dull misery in the kidney region, severe headaches, rheumatic twinges, torpid liver, acid stomach, sleeplessness and all sorts of bladder disorders.

You simply must keep your kidneys active and clean and the moment you feel an ache or pain in the kidney region get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good drug store here, take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salts is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and is harmless to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity. CRIPPLE CREEK MINES

JOHNSON LEASES THE TRAIL MINE

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 16.—A lease that insures the development of great depth of the Trail lode mining claim of the Requa Savage and Silver Mining and Milling company, a corporation controlled by the United Gold Mines company, has been issued to E. S. Johnson, of Colorado Springs, president and treasurer of the Blue Bird Gold Mining and Milling company.

The lease, covering a period exceeding three years, will expire by limitation on December 31, 1916, and during that time the lessee will pay royalties at a graded scale on all ore marketed.

Under the lease conditions, Lessee E. S. Johnson is empowered to operate either through the shafts and tunnels on the claim, or through the deep main shaft on the Blue Bird mine, a shaft that has attained a depth of 1,750 feet, the deepest mine in the entire district.

The Blue Bird mine is situated directly east of the Trail, and in its deepest workings a rich deposit of tetraedite or gray copper, carrying high values in both gold and silver, has been mined. This dish ore has also been found at depth in the American Eagles mine of the Stratton estate, and other mines in this vicinity, and through these discoveries its occurrence is confidently expected with the deep development of the veins of the Trail system. The lodes of the Trail mine workings have proven productive to the depths reached in the Trail tunnel, and there show great strength and continuity. A lateral from the deepest level of the Blue Bird shaft has already been carried to the Trail line, and this lateral will now be carried through the Trail for exploitation purposes.

RICH ORE IS EXPOSED IN THE W. P. H. MINE

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 16.—A new and rich ore shoot for the W. P. H. mine on Ironclad hill has been entered and is now under development at the 400-foot level of the main W. P. H. shaft—the old Harrison-Sevier workings—by John Connors, lessee of the United Gold Mines company.

The ore body found in the breccia of this section carries a liberal quantity of sylvanite all through the quartz and shipments already settled for have retdished high values, as shown by the settlement sheets. A car of screenings recently marketed brought settlement at the rate of 4.41 ounces gold or $88.08 to the ton, and a car of coarse quartz returned values at the rate of two ounces gold or $40 to the ton.

SMELTING GRADE ORE IS FOUND IN EMMA NO. 2

CRIPPLE CREEK, Oct. 16.—A discovery that hold promise of profit for Lemuel Kellum & Johnson, has been made by those well-known operators on the Emma No. 2 mine, Isabella Mines company.

Prospecting in the back of an old stope above the 135-foot level of the Emma No. 1 shaft, the lessees named have opened up two feet of sulphide ore, a black precipitated quartz that is rich with sylvanite. That the values are high is plainly evident, but no assays have been made and the expense has been declared unnecessary.

A trial shipment is now under preparation and the ore, if existing conditions continue, will be of high smelting grade.

NEW YORK MARKET

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—It required little effort to force stocks lower today. Sentiment was decidedly bearish. Pressure was not so severe, but apparently no one wished to buy. Numerous shares fell 1 to 2 points, and then trading became dull.

In a few cases quotations dropped back to the prices which prevailed during the June slump, taking them to the year's low points. Most of the leaders reached new low levels for the present long decline. The stagnation of the market when the tendency was upward indicated as clearly as the bearish attitude of traders, the paralysis of the buying power.

Selling was believed to be largely for the short account, although there were reports that dissatisfaction with general conditions was leading to the unloading of real stock in considerable volume. Intimations that banks and trust companies were thus selling met with denials. Representatives of some of the larger local institutions said the banks were bare of stocks.

Reports of new financing were associated with the especial weakness of individual stocks. The only definite news of this nature was that concerning Illinois Central's proposed $120,000,000 bond issue.

Bonds were under moderate pressure again. Total shares par value, $1,760,000.

CHICAGO MARKET

CHICAGO, Oct. 16.—Stop-loss selling on a large scale broke the wheat market today, notwithstanding that the season's low price record had been already smashed twice in the previous 48 hours. Bearishness in Wall street had much influence.

There was a heavy feeling at the close, which ranged 1½c to 1¾c lower. Corn finished ⅛c off to a shade up; oats, at ⅛c decline and provisions varying from 5c loss to a rise of 10c.

Foreign news gave the first downward impulse to wheat. Crop conditions abroad were reported as generally favorable and storage room becoming scarce in European centers, especially in Great Britain. The effect of the cables was supplemented by rains in the winter wheat region southwest of Chicago, where moisture would be most helpful to growing crops.

Quick profit taking by shorts led to several fair rallies in wheat, but selling drives continued, the hardest of all coming in the last half hour, and emphasizing fears in regard to the Mexican situation and the general financial outlook, including the fate of the currency bill. Unloading near the end of the day was of a semi-demoralized character.

Corn made a strong rebound from an early setback, and ruled higher most of the time, but weakened with wheat at the close. The buying side received help chiefly from prospects of unsettled weather throughout the entire shipping belt. There also were advices that supplies of Buenos Ayres had become almost exhausted.

In the oats crowd covering on the part of big shorts checked weakness. The first cargo of Canadian oats ever brought to Chicago arrived today, 300,000 bushels from Fort William, Ont.

Provisions averaged firmer. The buying was mainly traceable to houses identified with the trade in coarse grain.

PROHIBITION CLOSED A JAIL

So After Fifteen Years the Kingston Marshal Resigned

From Kansas City Star.

KINGSTON, Mo.—Alexander tried because there were no more worlds to conquer. Lanta Oliver, city marshal of Kingston for fifteen years, emulated the great Alexander when at the council meeting in Ab Howard's store the other night he resigned because there were no more duties for a marshal to perform.

Time was when Oliver's duties as marshal were numerous and the calaboose door swung on well oiled hinges. Three drug stores did a thriving business as drink emporiums. There were two pool halls and one bowling alley in the town. Justice T. J. Butt's courtroom was a mecca for the curious and unemployed once or twice a week.

Courtroom New Empty.

Things have changed. There is one drug store in the town. In order to get the antidote you must produce the snake that bit you.

There are no pool halls or a bowling alley. No license can be obtained for them. The official bench and desks in Justice Butt's court are covered with dust and the curious must be contented with an occasional marriage ceremony.

Some time ago the council decided they needed a light on the main corner of the town. They did not need a calaboose. The jail was sold at auction. Bole Brown bought it for a hen-house. Now the town had a marshal and a jail. No one wanted to ask Oliver to resign after fifteen years' faithful service as town cop. They don't do things in a small town like they do in a city.

Houses Hens Instead of Drunks.

Lanta Oliver just reasoned it out himself. If he arrested anyone he would have no place to put the prisoner. So the other night he walked into the council meeting in Howard's store and turned over the keys of the town jail to Bole Brown for his hen house.

SOUR, UPSET STOMACHS FIXED IN FIVE MINUTES---PAPE'S DIAPEPSIN

Best for Indigestion, Gas, Heartburn and Dyspepsia—It's Great!

When your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion.

Get from your pharmacist a fifty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin and take a dose just as soon as you can. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no stomach gas or heartburn, fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, nausea, dobilitating headaches, dizziness or intestinal griping. This will all go, and besides, there will be no sour food left over in the stomach to poison your breath with nauseous odors.

Pape's Diapepsin is a certain cure for out-of-order stomachs, because it takes hold of your food and digests it just the same as if your stomach wasn't there.

Relief in five minutes from all stomach misery is waiting for you at any drug store.

These large fifty-cent cases contain enough "Pape's Diapepsin" to keep the entire family free from stomach disorders and indigestion for many months. It belongs in your home. Adv.

The Czarina's Sister a Worker in the Slums

From the Kansas City Times.

Now on a visit in England is a remarkable woman of royal birth. While the doings of her royal sisters are always attended by full publicity, this woman comes and goes and manages to elude even the usual announcements in the court circular. She is the Grand Duchess Elizabeth of Russia, staying just now with her sister, Princess Louise of Battenberg. The world remembers her best of all, perhaps as the widow of the Grand Duke Sergius of Russia, uncle of the present Czar Nicholas, who was killed in Moscow in 1905 when a social revolutionist buried a bomb under his carriage.

The grand duchess escaped, public notice because she is a nun and takes no part in social functions. Formerly regarded as one of the most beautiful women in Europe, her face now bears signs of the ascetic life she leads. Before her husband's tragic end, the Grand Duchess Elizabeth was one of the gayest and most care free and non-religious women in Russia. But that event sobered her life and led her into the Orthodox Greek church, from which she had hitherto held aloof. She introduced a new form of convent life into her adopted country, modeled after the various orders of the Sisters of Mercy working in this country. The Russian nun is supposed to devote herself entirely to prayer and does not, as a rule, undertake charitable work.

The grand duchess revived in Russia an ancient order known as "Habitation" for the furthering of charitable works. It was to be carried on by sisters who should promise to live only for good works, but should not take religious vows. She opened the "Habitation of Mary and Martha" in Moscow, the city in which her husband held sway as governor general and the one in which he paid with his life for his cruel measures of repression against the people.

An Elaborate Ceremony.

The ceremony of dedication was a gorgeous one. The central figure was the grand duchess herself. With her were two beautiful young princesses, girls belonging to the aristocracy. Everything was done to increase the solemnity of the dedication. An ancient dress worn in Russia 1,000 years ago was revived by the duchess. Everything was snow white. The head dress called "apostolik," a white linen kerchief and above this a long white linen cloth which falls on both sides to the waist line, was worn. On the breast hung an eight-pointed cross with the effigies of Christ and of the Virgin on one side and those of Mary and Martha on the reverse.

Robed thus and surrounded by a brilliant assembly of priests of the Greek Catholic church, officers and high officials of the army and state, the grand duchess was consecrated for the work in Moscow. Immediately after the ceremony, the duchess made a round of the slums and thieves' dens of Moscow and to prove the genuineness of her conversion went down upon her knees in her snowy robes and washed a dirty floor in the slum district. The order now has 45 sisters, all of noble birth, of whom 18 have taken the final vows.

The Grand Duke Sergius seems to have been an unprincipled man who was thoroughly hated by the Russian common people. He was the richest of all the Romanoff grand dukes. He lived on his salary as governor of Moscow, hoarded his vast private income and added largely to his fortune by various roguish enterprises. Today the grand duchess has command of $15,000,000 and it has enabled her to aid many charitable works and to give to many charities.

Went in for the Feminist Movement.

Not long after her husband's death Grand Duchess Elizabeth spent several months incognito in Europe attending suffrage meetings, specially in London and associating with the leaders both there and in Paris. On her return to Russia she began to express her ideas and sympathies with the movement, till the czar, hearing some new expression that had escaped her lips, sent for her.

"What does this mean?" he asked, repeating her words, to the effect that women should have equal social and political rights with men. Though she saw that the czar was genuinely angry with her, she put up a bold front and answered:

"It means that I think women should be freed from the political slavery in which they have been kept for centuries. You men have had enough of this monopoly."

"Then you are a suffragette?" asked the astonished czar.

"Yes. But not a militant one," the grand duchess replied. "I believe we women will get what we want by influence and not by disorder."

When later the czar heard that she had held a meeting in her palace and read a paper to the assembled women in sympathy with suffragism, he again sent for her. This time he told her he could not have her expressing those disturbing ideas in St. Petersburg. She must go away and refrain from spreading so dangerous a doctrine in St. Petersburg.

"I think a woman can find plenty to do in a nunnery," the czar is said to have remarked. "Suppose you go to Moscow and found a nice nunnery for women of aristocratic birth."

That is one story of how the grand duchess came to be a sister. But the czar's displeasure was not lasting. The czarina, who is the younger sister of the Grand Duchess Elizabeth, both having been daughters of Ludwig, Grand Duke of Hesse, is far too fond of her sister to permit of her permanent banishment from St. Petersburg. It was she who placated the czar and so it was that the Grand Duchess Elizabeth went a year after the suffragette incident to spend some weeks with the czarina at the palace near St. Petersburg. Now she devotes her time to charity work and to travel, avoids society even on a visit to her former home and among her royal kinsfolk in England. She is still a nun and finding happiness in her work does not hanker after the notoriety with which royal society surrounds itself.

American Railways Are More Sanitary Than European--Dr. Rucker

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Oct. 16.—A report at today's session of the American Electric railway convention from the committee on which the American Institute of Electric Engineers, the National Electric Light association and the American Telegraph and Telephone were represented advocated the joint use by all the principal wire users of the country of one set of poles in city and village streets. The association authorized the estimate of a bureau to make a study of fares to determine the actual cost of transporting passengers on electric railways.

Assistant Surgeon General W. C. Rucker of the public health service declared that sanitary conditions on American railways generally speaking were a vast improvement over those of railways in European countries. "The blame of such unsatisfactory conditions as exist at present," he said, "rests as much on the traveling public as on the companies."

EFFECTS OF NEW TARIFF BILL SOON TO BE SEEN

WASHINGTON, Oct. 16.—The actual effect of the new tariff law on the government's revenue will be disclosed by detailed comparisons and computations being made for Secretary McAdoo. The estimates of expenses for all branches of the government are almost finished. President Wilson has passed word along for some economy and treasury officials interpret it as neither to raise the estimates beyond what is necessary to provide a margin for the congressional appropriation committees to cut down—a practice charged by officials against past regimes—nor to skimp any government service so as to cripple it.

While the customs revenues have fluctuated too much to warrant any satisfactory estimates as to what may be expected, the internal revenue receipts are running up a normal increase all along the line, so far showing $4,000,000 ahead of the same period of the last fiscal year.

Wilson To Rededicate Old Congress Hall

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., Oct. 16.—Arrangements for the rededication of Congress hall in this city on October 25, are being completed by the committee in charge.

President Wilson, who has stated that he considers it "not only an honor but a duty to attend," will stand on the same spot in the old senate chamber as did George Washington when he took the oath of office at his second inauguration, and John Adams when he succeeded Washington. The president will occupy the chair used by John Hancock when the latter signed the Declaration of Independence in Independence hall. This will be the first occasion on which the chair has been occupied since General Grant requested the privilege in 1876.

Representatives of all the states which were in the Union when the building was occupied by congress will be present at the ceremonies.

Real Democratic Debut--First in 16 Years

The first born radical debutante in the national capital in 16 years is less conspicuous not only for the notable families she represents, but because she is a daughter of the debutante themselves. Every bud is a product and an interested in something more than the social round. Some excel in literature, others in art and still more in music. The girls are headed by Miss Genevieve Clark, daughter of the speaker.

She is surrounded by the following professional debutantes: Miss Fern Church, daughter of Representative Church of California; Miss Eleanor Knowland, daughter of the representative from California; Miss Janet Fall, daughter of the senator from New Mexico; Miss Callie Hoke Smith, daughter of the senator from Georgia; Miss Marion L. Fuqua, daughter of the representative from Florida and Miss Fay Hardy, daughter of the representative from Texas.

PROF. VAN DYKE CALLS ON QUEEN WILHELMINA

THE HAGUE, Netherlands, Oct. 16.—Henry Van Dyke, formerly of Princeton university, the United States minister to the Netherlands, today presented his credentials to Queen Wilhelmina at the palace of Het Loe. After conveying the compliments of President Wilson, Professor Van Dyke spoke of his own peculiar pleasure in taking up his mission.

"Holland was the home of my forefathers," he said, "and gave to America the fundamental ideas of religious liberty, public education and federal union. It is today the center of the most thoughtful efforts to promote the peace of the world on the basis of international justice and reason."

Professor Van Dyke signalized the commencement of his mission by sending to America a choice collection of tulip bulbs for the garden of Nassau hall, Princeton.

ALL HOPE ABANDONED FOR MISSING AVIATOR JEWELL

NEW YORK, Oct. 16.—Seekers by land and sea for Albert J. Jewell, the airman, who vanished in the sky last Monday, abandoned hope today of finding his body or his aeroplane. They were convinced that he had been carried out to sea by the wind, had fallen into the water and drowned. He was last seen 4,000 feet above Edgemere, L. I., heading for the open water.

When the wild west show property was sold by auction in Denver recently, friends of Colonel Cody saw to it that the colonel's favorite white horse, which he had ridden for nearly 25 years, was not disposed of. It was arranged that one of them should bid in the horse. This was carried out, but the plan was somewhat unfortunate, as an Indian, who desired to buy the horse to present to its old owner, raised the price to a high figure, not knowing that he was bidding against friends of the colonel who had the same object in view.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Wished on Expectant Mothers.

One of the most important matters about which women concern themselves is their future status as a grandmother. And she is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. This is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It certainly has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a most grateful encouragement to the young, expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happy in mind, free in body and thus destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles free, pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread, it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women, hence Mother's Friend is really one of the greatest blessings that could be devised.

This splendid and certain remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle, and is sure to prove of inestimable value, not only upon the mother, but upon the health and future of the child. Write to Bradfield Regulator Co., 122 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.

MOVIES ON OCEAN LINERS

Film Shows May Be Installed in Ships Leaving the Port of New York

From the New York Telegraph.

If plans which are now under way are perfected, moving picture shows will be given on all the big ocean liners leaving this port. Fred Block, the motor car man, in association with Maurice Strauss, the lawyer, and several others, has submitted a proposition to the officials of the several big steamship lines to install "movie" exhibitions on a percentage basis. Those behind the scheme believe the pictures would fill a long felt want and steamship officials are willing to concede that film shows would do much toward breaking up the monotony of the ocean trip.

The proposition, as mapped out now, would call for two shows in the steerage each afternoon at an admission fee of 10 cents, one in the second class steerage at 15 cents, and one at night in the main saloon at a quarter. The films would be changed each day and only up-to-date pictures would be used. With each ship leaving New York would go a picture machine operator, a ticket taker and a pianist who could sing. The show would be varied by the playing and singing of the musician. A feature film would be the piece de resistance of each exhibition.

The operator would take with him 36 reels. These would furnish shows enough for the trip over, and the same reels could be used on the return voyage, since there would be a new lot of passengers.

There is one drawback to the plan, and that is the fact that the holder of each first class ticket has the right to go into the main saloon whenever he chooses. If an arrangement could be made whereby the first class passengers could be kept out, unless they bought tickets during the film shows, the plan would be almost without formidable obstacles.
